

TWINS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS. Everett and Fred Shaffstall, twin sons of Mrs. Freda Shaffstall of 230 E. Washington Ave., are presented diplomas here by Paul W. Kohler, president of the Marion City Board of Education, during Harding High School commencement exercises Thursday night. Honor students, both boys plan to enroll in the Marion branch of Ohio State University this fall to begin study for careers in engineering. The class of 342 graduates has one other set of twins—Suzanne and Sallyann Montgomery, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Montgomery of 865 E. Church St. Delivering the commencement address was Claude V. Courter, superintendent of Cincinnati public schools.

General Will Take Over Affairs De Gaulle Moves To Curb Algerian Rebel Authority

Dulles Sees Reds Easing Policy Stand

Views Recent Moves
As Encouraging in Testimony to Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today "we have been encouraged" by some recent Soviet foreign policy moves and believe significant agreements between the Soviet Union and the Western Powers are possible.

"Whether or not a summit conference would be productive of such agreements remains to be seen," Dulles told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Agreement Encouraging

He described as encouraging the Soviet agreement to join in scientific studies of policing an atomic test suspension and also Soviet acceptance of the U.S. proposal to confer on neutralizing the antarctic.

Dulles pictured the Soviet Communist bloc as in trouble on a number of points. Moscow, he predicted, will either have to grant more independence to the Eastern European satellite countries or else revert to Stalinist terror "with increased likelihood of violent revolt."

Stormy Debate

The Senate, after stormy debate voted 43-22 Thursday night to remove the proposed new authority from the $3,712,000,000 foreign aid bill. It hopes to complete action on the measure by tonight.

Twenty-six Republicans and 17 Democrats joined in rejecting the idea. Twenty-seven Democrats and 15 Republicans voted for it.

The proposal would specifically have authorized the President to provide economic or financial assistance to any country except the Soviet Union, Red China and Communist North Korea, if he found such assistance to be in the national interest. It was designed to help Communist satellites relax the control of Moscow.

The Foreign Relations Committee wrote the provision into the bill in the form of an amendment by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.). The vote to remove it was on motion of Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California.

Mayor Sends Traffic Report To Columbus

The printed version of Marion's arterial highway plan was sent to the state highway department in Columbus today by Mayor Wendell L. Strong for approval of form and contents.

The mayor said yesterday he planned to deliver it to Columbus himself but today sent it down with two of the city engineer's assistants who were en route to Columbus on other city business.

Mayor Strong said he asked Ted Watt and James Merchant to deliver the report, and a copy of the resolution adopted by City Council to send the report to the highway department, directly to Warren J. Creman, urban projects engineer in the division of location and design of the highway department.

The printed version of the arterial plan, which basically is the same as the preliminary report submitted to the city by the authors, Browne, Roberts and Associates, early in 1956, was completed early in April.

The two engineer's assistants went to Columbus today to deliver plans for the Pearl St. relief sewer project to the state health department for approval and to deliver another sample of the oil substance collected from the W. Center St. sanitary sewer to a private testing laboratory for analysis.

Safety-Service Director Howard W. Travis said today the source of the substance still has not been determined and it still is flowing into the sanitary sewer on W. Center St. between Cayuga St. and Fies Ave.

Honor Inmate Checking Car Doesn't Return

Takes Another With Him in Correctional Institution Escape

Two honor inmates of the Marion Correctional Institution are still at large today after making a bold escape in a prison employee's car about noon Thursday.

A man identified as Aloysius Aversch, 31, of near Ottawa, working in the institution garage, left the prison grounds on the pretext of test driving the car he had just repaired, Lamoyne Green, superintendent reported.

He did not return, but apparently stopped long enough to pick up another prisoner, James Denoon, 27, of Columbus, working in the fields.

Both men were serving sentences here on charges of auto theft. Aversch also was serving time on a burglary charge, Mr. Green said.

Law enforcement officials in the area and throughout the state have been alerted to the escape which was discovered by institution officials about 1 p.m. when Aversch failed to return from the test run. Denoon, however, was not discovered as missing until shortly afterward. No trace of the escapees has been reported.

Mr. Green issued the following description of the men:

Aversch, height, six feet, 11 inches; weight, 174; brown hair and brown eyes, and scar above right eye; Denoon, height 5 feet, 8 inches.

Heights Stays Outside

Annexation Move Refused in County

A bid for annexation of Vernon Heights to the city was unanimously rejected Thursday by the county commissioners.

The commissioners' action, which bars further consideration of annexation under this petition, came just a week after they took under consideration oral arguments on the request.

Luther Mitchell, chairman of the commissioners, said this morning that the board turned down the petition primarily because a number of petitioners had withdrawn their signatures, leaving considerably less than a majority desiring annexation.

WHEN THE petition was submitted to the commissioners in March it carried signatures of some 58.8 per cent of the property owners. According to Mr. Mitchell, signature withdrawals dropped the figure to about 43 per cent. Ralph Howard, attorney for the petitioners, said today he had only been notified of the commissioners' action but had not been informed of the reasons behind it. He said he was not sure whether a new petition would be filed with the commissioners.

MR. HOWARD and Paul D. Michel, attorney for Vernon Heights residents objecting to annexation, presented their arguments on the petition in Common Pleas Court last Thursday.

The area for which annexation was sought covers about 154 acres and contains some 131 lots. Valuation of the Vernon Heights section is about $1,108,000.

At their meeting yesterday the commissioners also appointed Mrs. D. E. English of near New Bloom-

O'Neill Ready for Action

Governor Girds for Stiff Test of His Leadership

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Politicians have been wondering in recent weeks whether they have been looking at a "new" Bill O'Neill—a governor with more of a liberal tilt.

For a governor who obviously wanted no controversy in his first year in office, O'Neill has startled politicians lately by venturing into such trouble areas as unemployment compensation and poor relief.

Opens SUB Question

To illustrate: O'Neill is asking the upcoming special session of the Legislature to approve an extra 13 weeks of benefits for the jobless.

He is planning to ask an extra million for the state's share of local poor relief costs.

He even conceded that the whole question of supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) will be wide open to the consideration of lawmakers when they meet in special session "on or before June 30."

Can this be the same Bill O'Neill who, last year, wanted no part of a fight? Have his ideas changed in recent weeks?

"I'm the same Bill O'Neill as before," he says. "Now some things have developed that are of the utmost importance—things that demand action."

Basic Ideas Unchanged
"Some of the seers will tell you that they have been calling for action for a year or more. The facts are that an economic situation has developed which could not be foreseen a year ago."

Yield Power, Junta Is Told By Premier

Insurgents-Directed To Concentrate on Integration Problems

ORAN, Algeria (AP)—Premier de Gaulle told representatives of All-Algeria Public Safety Committee today its insurgent authority must come to an end. He said he will run Algeria.

He named Gen. Raoul Salan, military commander of the junta, as his own delegate-general in Algiers—a new post.

But De Gaulle will personally assume control of Algerian affairs, acting as his own Cabinet minister for the strife-torn territory.

Demands Integration

De Gaulle said the committee, which led the drive to bring him to power, must now concentrate on integration of the Moslem and European communities in Algeria.

On the last day of his tour of Algeria, he told representatives of the Algerian and the local committee: "You must not trespass or substitute yourselves for legal authority. Your task is to work for a complete integration of souls."

His statement cleared up his attitude on the future of the public safety committee movement that spread throughout Algeria as well as metropolitan France and parts of the French Empire.

As in Algiers Wednesday and in eastern Algeria Thursday, excited crowds of Europeans and Moslems crowded the streets of this west Algerian port to greet the World War II hero who became French premier last Sunday.

General Infuriated

Back home, Paris newspapers predicted trouble for De Gaulle from the insurgent military-civilian Committees of Public Safety who seized power in Algeria three weeks ago.

Spokesmen for the committees, which represent the interests of the 1½ million French settlers in Algeria, reportedly have demanded that De Gaulle grant them a big voice in his regime. The demands reportedly infuriated the old soldier.

Woman Dies, Man Is Found After Tornado

MENOMONIE, Wis. (AP)—A young mother died of injuries today, but a man believed dead was found alive, keeping the toll of Wednesday night's tornado at 30. The grim search through the devastated northwestern Wisconsin area continued.

The latest death was that of Mrs. Rolf Lunn, 21, who died at Luther Hospital in Eau Claire today of injuries suffered when the winds shattered the home of the Erling Lunn in Colfax, where she was visiting. Her baby son still is hospitalized. Erling, her brother-in-law, and one of his children also were killed.

Taken off the list of dead was Ralph Huseby of Minneapolis, who had been carried as an unidentified truck driver killed when the winds smashed his truck at Colfax. Officials located him today.

State, federal and private agencies offered assistance from headquarters set up in the four-county area. At least 30 persons died when three twisters ripped a 90-mile path Wednesday night. Six persons were reported missing.

More than 350 were injured, 119 of them requiring hospital attention. At least 20 of the injured were in grave condition. Damage will be in the millions, according to Gov. Vernon Thomson, who inspected the area by plane and car. Thursday the Red Cross said that 615 families were affected. More than 100 homes were destroyed, another 165 damaged extensively and 350 less se-

Ike Appoints J. A. McCone To AEC Post Former Defense Aide Is Named to Board as Lewis Strauss Resigns

WASHINGTON (AP)—John A. McCone, Los Angeles businessman, was nominated by President Eisenhower today to succeed Lewis L. Strauss as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

He is a Republican. In announcing the nomination, the White House press office said it had no information as to whether the President intends to designate McCone, or some present member of the commission, to serve as the new chairman.

McCone, 56, is an engineer as well as having widespread business interests. He was a Defense Department official in the administration of former President Truman, serving as deputy to the secretary of defense in 1948 and as undersecretary of the Air Force in 1950-51.

Friend of President

A personal friend of President Eisenhower, McCone has been a frequent visitor to the White House.

Strauss is leaving the AEC June 30 when his current five-year term expires. His decision to step out as chairman and an AEC member was announced by the White House Thursday.

Strauss gave no specific reason for his decision. But he said in a letter to President Eisenhower that he believed "circumstances beyond the control of either of us make a change in the chairmanship of the commission advisable."

This could have been an allusion to speculation that his resignation might run into stiff opposition in the Senate.

Drops Advisory Role

Capitol Hill reaction to his decision was mixed, with some Congress members lauding his "great contributions" and others voicing pleasure at his impending departure.

The 62-year-old Strauss, a former New York banker, also will give up his post as special adviser to Eisenhower on atomic energy matters. But he will become

Mercury Hits High Mark for Season

The weather got all "summered up" Thursday, with the mercury hitting a new season's high of 89, one degree under the predicted 90. The overnight low was 47, as rain late in the afternoon brought cooler conditions in the county.

All told, only .05 of an inch of rain was measured officially, although parts of the area got a real soaking.

It was clear and cool at dawn today and by noon the sun had encouraged the mercury to a high of only 62, with a peak of 72 expected before nightfall.

Warmer weather is promised Saturday, with a high of 80 in store following tonight's anticipated low of 48.

Cincinnati Speaks 342 Local Seniors Receive Diplomas

"Your key to the future is acceptance of the responsibility that every freeborn American citizen owes to himself, his government and his God," Claude V. Courter, superintendent of Cincinnati public schools, told Harding High School seniors at the 86th annual commencement program held Thursday night in the Veterans Memorial Coliseum.

Speaking before a crowd of nearly 2,500 persons, the educator urged students to develop to the utmost their ability and potentials that they may make valuable contributions to society. He addressed a graduating class of 342 students.

RESPONSIBILITY, said Mr. Courter, is the beginning of free citizenship and of one's self. "Determine God's purpose in your life and base your action and conduct on understanding God's will for man," he emphasized.

"If you can develop responsibility and yourselves to the utmost, then you have the key by which you can pass through the portals to an ever finer life for yourselves and for posterity," the speaker declared.

He challenged graduates to find the true strength and power of their nation by letting right and beauty rule their lives. Right, he said, can be found by discovering God's will for your life. Beauty, the speaker explained, is dedication of one's self to service to his fellow man.

Enumerating the factors which place a key to the future in the graduate's hand, he cited education's vital role.

"DO YOU appreciate the meaning of the public school system in this country?" Mr. Courter asked seniors. He defined it as "a system through which free men acquire capacity knowledge and the ability to govern themselves." They learn to live, work and play together while joining hands in

Taking a glimpse into the future, he told the graduates that they, along with 20 million other young people who will graduate from high school in the next 10 years, will determine the ultimate destiny of this great society.

He urged students to join their minds, hearts and spirits in generating the power to counteract armies and dictators ruling by force. Freedom, he said, must live and triumph.

"May our future be glorious because of you," he said in conclusion.

Excise Taxes Continued by Vote in House

WASHINGTON (AP)—House passage of a bill to extend corporation income and excise tax rates opened the way today for a Senate floor battle over cuts in these and other levies.

Amendments were barred as the House voted Thursday to continue the taxes for another year at their wartime rates, thus avoiding a $2,600,000,000 drop in revenue. The bill was passed by voice vote.

Revenue measures must originate in the House. The Senate can not start a tax bill, but can amend one.

Little or no Senate change is expected, but the one considered most likely is repeal of wartime transportation taxes. They impose a 3 per cent levy on freight rates and 10 per cent on passenger fares.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) said he would seek broad personal income and excise tax cuts as an amendment to the bill.

Tragedy in Barberton

Marion Crew Horrified As Train Kills 2 Youths

Three members of a Marion night crew watched horrified Thursday afternoon as their west-bound Erie freight slammed into two youngsters at the end of a trestle at the western edge of Barberton.

The boys, Jimmy Hazuka, 10, and his 8-year-old brother Ronald, were killed instantly. A third companion, Ted Mann, 9, ran from the trestle a split second ahead of the train and was uninjured.

ENGINEER John L. Sontag, 67, of 588 Uncapher Ave., said he saw the youths running along the trestle about 25 car lengths ahead. He said he applied the air brakes and sounded the horn immediately. The train ground to a stop about 50 or 60 car lengths past the west end of the trestle, he said.

Mr. Sontag, still somewhat shaken this morning after a sleepless night, said if the boys had had another three or four seconds they could have won their race with death. He estimated the train's speed at 50 m.p.h. and said it takes a good three or four seconds for the air brakes to take hold after they are applied.

WATCHING helplessly with Mr. Sontag were D. J. Finley of 847 Uncapher Ave., conductor, and Harold F. Boyd of near Marion, fireman. Other members of the crew were R. C. Baker of 213 S. High St., brakeman, and C. L. Spiggle of 1044 E. Church St., flagman.

The two brothers who were killed were the sons of Mrs. Henry A. Smith of Barberton and Valentine J. Hazuka of Akron. The Mann youth is the son of Mr. and

Officials Feel Pike Back on Safe Ground

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania Turnpike officials feel they are at last on safe financial ground — free from the quagmire of scandal which a year ago threatened to swallow up the 440-million-dollar toll road operation.

Commissioners of the 471-mile superhighway said today bondholders have almost forgotten the 19½-million-dollar conspiracy which Gov. George M. Leader described as "one of the greatest public swindles of all time."

Thursday five men — two of them former turnpike commissioners and another a top turnpike employee — were sentenced to jail terms ranging from 10 months to five years for their part in the conspiracy. All are free pending appeals to the State Superior Court.

Three years ago national publications and trade magazines were telling the story of a 40-year-old Reading, Pa., engineer Charles W. Stickler Jr.

He boasted that his Manu-Mine Research and Development Co.

had parlayed a $4,500 capital stock investment into a multimillion-dollar enterprise in a few years.

Stickler's uncle Thomas J. Evans then was chairman of the Turnpike Commission. Manu-Mine had a big contract to fill abandoned mines under the roadbed of the turnpike extension being built into northeastern Pennsylvania, near Scranton.

Then state officials received an anonymous letter. Its author identified himself only as a truck driver and told how he had been instructed to dump material ostensibly intended for the mine-filling project.

State investigators probed deep into the Manu-Mine contract. They said they found: That the mine-filling project was "made-work" and the contract was awarded without bids. That what filling was needed could have been done for less than $50,000 instead of the 19½ million dollars provided in the contract.

That the commission was charged for thousands of borings that never were drilled or that were not deep enough to carry the filler into the mines.

That thousands of tons of sand and silt were dumped into rivers, along highways and even in a cemetery, rather than in the old mines.

5 Sentenced in $19.5 Million Pennsylvania Turnpike Fraud

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Two former Pennsylvania Turnpike commissioners and three other men Thursday were sentenced to prison for 10 months to five years for conspiring to defraud the commission of 19½ million dollars.

The sentences, imposed by Judge Homer L. Kreider in Dauphin County Court, came exactly a year and a day after the five men were brought to trial.

Gov. George M. Leader termed the conspiracy "one of the greatest public swindles of all time."

Those sentenced:

Thomas J. Evans, former commission chairman, two years, $500 fine and costs on conspiracy conviction, and one to two years and $5,000 fine for misconduct in office.

James F. Torrance, former commissioner, one to two years, $500 fine for conspiracy, and one to two years, $1,000 fine and costs for misconduct in office.

Charles W. Stickler Jr., president of Manu-Mine Research and Development Co., of Reading, two years, $500 fine and costs for conspiracy and five years for false pretenses.

Clayton A. Landside, former general manager and vice president of Manu-Mine 10 to 23 months, $500 fine for conspiracy and one to two years for false pretenses.

Paul J. McNeill, former chief finance officer for the commission, 10 months to 23 months, $500 fine for conspiracy.

More Daring Than Reuther's

Demands by Oil Union Will Shatter Precedent

By VICTOR RIESEL

From the fields of the black gold gushers comes news that the oil workers are planning strikes of their own when they believe they've got the industry over a barrel. These stoppages may not come for some months. But when they do, the oil union will be fighting for demands more daring and more dramatically precedent-setting than even Walter Reuther's.

VICTOR RIESEL
The International Oil, Chemical

and Atomic Workers Union, led by mild-mannered Jack Knight, is asking, for example, that the industry create a pool of money which would pay for investments on the stock exchange in the name of each worker.

This would be similar to John Lewis' coal union royalty of 40 cents on each ton mined or Jimmy Petrillo's Musicians Federation royalty on each recording cut and each sound track used in films.

But there would be a difference. Once the money pool is big enough, it would be poured into securities. There would be cautious investments.

THE INVESTMENTS would be made in one lump sum. But each worker, in his own name, would own part of the fund. This ownership would be the sole property of the worker. If he quit the plant or the oil field or was fired, he would get his share of the cash. If he died, his widow would get it.

But he would not have to wait until he left his job. He could withdraw his share while working — if he needed it to pay for the education of young men and women in his family or if he wanted it for some sudden emergency.

The union says that it hopes to win such a clause from several companies this year — and make it a national demand during the next contract negotiations — on the theory that the members are entitled to a "share in the expanding production that . . . the wealth of the employers justifies."

Just as startling is the union's new severance pay demand — under which a man with 30 years on the job, retiring at 64 years of age, would get as much as $18,000 when he left.

THE FORMULA here is two weeks pay for every year worked up to 40 years of age. After that there would be 10 per cent added to the amount for every year of the worker's age over 40. At 41 years of age, if he was let out, the worker would get two weeks per year's work under 40, and 10 per cent. At 42, he'd get two weeks per year and 20 per cent, etc., up to two weeks and 200 per cent at 60 years. That would be the limit of the extra bonus.

There's a fascinating layoff demand, too. The union is asking the industry to sign contracts which say that the employer must give at least four months notice before he lays off 5 per cent of the workers — whether he does this at one time or over the period of a year.

To avoid layoffs, the union would have the employer wipe out overtime and reduce the working hours before firing. If you cut the number of hours, you stretch the work over more employees.

Furthermore, the union is arguing that layoffs save the owner money — and the union wants a share of this for the remaining workers. So it is demanding that the contract be reopened for new wage negotiations every time the boss lays off 5 per cent — either at one time, or over a year. In addition, there are demands for wage increases and the usual welfare and pension fringe benefits.

Reports from the oil men indicate that they are positively ready to take a showdown strike. They're in no mood for new fashions.

Rejects Compromise

BENGASI, Libya (AP) — Lebanon today rejected an Arab League compromise aimed at putting her charges of interference by the United Arab Republic on ice.

A resolution advanced at a meeting reportedly would have sent a fact-finding mission to Lebanon to investigate the charges that the U.A.R. had fostered the current attempt to overthrow pro-Western President Camille Chamoun.

Some 300 to 500 persons have been killed in the month-old fighting in Lebanon between government and opposition forces. Violence is continuing.

Railroad Refuses To Give Up Fight For Passengers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Southern Railroad is cutting fares again—this time for the benefit of Pullman passengers.

Most other railroads have given up on passenger business. They have discontinued and combined trains or abandoned service on most branches and even on main lines. Buses and airplanes have taken much of the business.

"Our passenger operations are important to us," said W. N. Deramus, the peppery 70-year-old who has been head of the Kansas City Southern since 1940. He once said he hoped to get coach fares down to a cent a mile.

The new fare deal will permit passengers to use Pullmans on regular coach tickets. Estimated saving: 29 per cent.

Pullman passengers still must pay the Pullman Co. space charges.

C. H. Taylor, the railroad's advertising manager, said he believes the Kansas City Southern is the first to offer the savings to Pullman passengers over its entire system.

Wins $6,275 Award

Will Be Ambassador

BONN, Germany (AP)—French diplomatic sources reported today that Premier de Gaulle is expected to put Jacques Soustelle on the shelf by naming him France's ambassador to the United States.

Sending the firebrand Gaullist deputy to Washington would please the moderates and leftists whose support De Gaulle needs in France. But it would infuriate the extreme rightists in France and Algeria who have been demanding he take a position of power in De Gaulle's government.

Lose Air Supremacy

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—An Indonesian air force spokesman said today the rebels have lost their air supremacy in the north Celebes and have not flown a mission since May 18. Eleven rebel planes have been lost, he claimed.

The Open Smile at Brussels

I have seen only two other world's fairs—the Chicago A Century of Progress in 1933 and the New York exposition in 1939, and by any standards this is a good show.

Is size and complexity staggered the imagination and it also is likely to cripple the feet. It's a whopping success, the cautious Belgians already beginning to revise their estimated attendance from 35 million to 50 million.

If you try to get into the American pavilion on a Sunday, you're likely to get the idea all 50 million are there already.

One thing I've learned about world's fairs is that you never can figure them in advance. No one could have predicted that Sally Rand and her fans were going to monopolize the attention in Chicago in 1933 and no one could have figured that a fashion show of beachwear, in which three overworked and cold models in bathing suits dash up and down a ramp, would stop the show in the American pavilion.

But they do.

FOREIGNERS come in and stand, transfixed, for hours, tying up the flow of traffic. It's a hit, all right, but even our Commissioner General, Howard Cullman, thinks it is an exasperating hit and wishes it were a little less so.

Our pavilion, a little circle of open lawns in white and gold, is as lovely a bit of exposition architecture as you will ever see.

With its grove of trees inside and splashing fountains and gay banners outside, it is like an open smile, to my mind the most inviting exterior on the grounds. However, Americans are beginning to complain that it is a rather empty smile.

Inside, there is an American drug store fountain (very popular), charming cartoons by Steinberg showing our more human aspects, a delightful spot for children to play while their elders look at the atomic reactor model built by Westinghouse, movies showing the changing face of New York and San Francisco (in which Frisco gets the best of it), a display of controls found in the American home such as the ones you find on electric blankets, and a color TV demonstration that you can't get near.

POPULARITY is not our problem; rather, the other way 'round. I had barely set foot on the fairgrounds when a German asked which way to the Circarama. This is Walt Disney's 360-degree film which is the Ford Motor Co.'s gift to the fair, and it's a howling success.

It's a tour of America starting in New York harbor, where the 15 cameras show you every ripple, every building and the Queen Mary as if you had eyes in the back of your head.

The tour inspects a New England town—Williamsburg, Mass.—a college campus, Ford's River Rouge plant (the only commercial note) and the Grand Canyon and ends where it began in New York harbor with a view of the Statue of Liberty and a full chorus chanting "America the Beautiful."

It's corny but it reduces some homesick Americans to tears and it even wows the Europeans.

THE TROUBLE is that it can accommodate only 200 or 300 at a time, leaving thousands of frustrated ones outside. It's always a question in my mind whether these smash hits at world fairs do more good than harm.

For instance, the General Motors Futurama—was that the name?—at the New York World's Fair was certainly one of the stellar attractions. But the average wait to get in was something like three hours and a three-hour wait in the sun, I always felt, would embitter me against General Motors all my life.

Similarly, two or three hours in the incessant Belgian rain to see Circarama might turn the Europeans against everything in America the beautiful.

I have met Belgians who love our smiling and light-hearted exhibit and I have met Belgians who find it a terrible disappointment.

These reactions tell more about the particular Belgian than about the exhibit. A serious European told me that our exhibit did not touch on any of the things he was interested in, such as how we propose to solve our desegregation problem. The answer to this (and I am by no means the only American who use it) is that the Russians don't show us what they propose to do about the Siberian salt mines either.

MY OWN REACTION is one of slight disappointment. I felt more could have been done with our enchanting white and gold edifice, but I feel that I am probably just being self-consciously American and that if I were a European I would enjoy it very much.

There's a story abroad that the Russian ambassador to Brussels can't stand the Russian pavilion and loves ours.

Well, I'm with him. The Russian pavilion, whose square cornered exterior is much handsomer than the original drawings promised, is bleak and depressing inside. It is dominated by a huge and very bad statue of Lenin and two enormous and utterly atrocious murals, one of smiling workers and the other of smiling athletes, both in billions pink.

Once past these, the Russian displays of their Sputnik, their educational system, their music and dance, are very good but nothing will overcome that original impact. Outside, the Russian pavilion is ringed with farm equipment that even to these city eyes looks terribly outdated.

Our own pavilion is ringed with you'd never guess—very comfortable chairs for people to sit down in. A place to sit down is always in short supply at any World's Fair and we may win the battle of Brussels in those chairs. (Copyright New York Herald Tribune)

Valedictory Crowns Student's 13-Year Battle Against Polio

LEXINGTON, Va. (AP)—A 21-year-old honors student from Washington, D. C., mounts the platform at Washington and Lee University today to deliver the valedictory.

For John Monk Larson it will be more than just the final bright touch on an outstanding college career. It will also be the high point in a 13-year battle against polio.

And, says Larson, had it not been for his handicap, he might not have done so well in college. Outside interests would have encroached on the time he devoted to studies, he says.

Larson was stricken in 1945. He lost the use of both arms but had

Progress in Education Continues

Two reports from Marion school officials this week reveal the continuing efforts being made to improve this city's educational system.

One was the annual report of the Board of Education which this year described the steps it will soon be necessary to take to meet the problem of a growing school population.

The other was Supt. Robert S. Brown's announcement of a special short course in grammar, reading and writing which will be offered in August to high school graduates planning to enter college.

Each illustrates the thought and planning on school questions which able board members and superintendents have been giving here for a good many years.

The special course for college-bound students, scheduled in August, should give Marion undergraduates a boost over a hurdle which often trips up college freshmen—inability to use the English language correctly.

THE NEED FOR mastery of English and grammar was revealed in a poll of Ohio colleges and universities undertaken by Supt. Brown. These institutions reported new students lacked preparation in this field more often than in any other.

So important is writing ability considered that one university, Ohio Wesleyan, has adopted a double system of grading to detect shortcomings in this area. Beginning next fall, students will be given two grades—one on the subject under study, the other on their mastery of English as revealed in term papers. Those who fall short on the latter will be required to take remedial courses.

The short course to be offered here is another "first" in education for Marion, coming on top of a summer kindergarten program launched last year. It is characteristic of the way in which Marion educators, under the leadership of Supt. Brown, have attacked an educational shortcoming.

THE SCHOOL board's report on classroom needs suggests a course of action recommended by Bureau of Education Research of Ohio State University after an extensive study of population trends, condition of buildings, and type of instruction offered. The bureau, which is now engaged in a similar study of the Marion County school system, recommended a staged program of building improvements, replacements, and site acquisition.

In its annual report, the board outlined a "first step" building program, which should be undertaken in the near future, and a "second step" program for succeeding years.

The first step calls for a multi-purpose room for N. Main St. School, a new building in the Fair Park section, and acquisition of a new site in the southeast section. The second step calls for a new building to replace the old Oak St. School, a new structure to replace the old section of Silver St. School, a new building in the southeast, and improvements to Vernon School.

THE REPORT also suggests ways to finance construction—by a "pay-as-you-go" tax levy, by a bond issue, or by a combination of the two methods.

Board members have been thinking for some time about how to finance improvements, and when it will be necessary to launch a building program.

Whatever the decision, the electorate should be willing to back it up at the polls, for decisions of board members in the past have given this city an educational system in which we can take great pride.

Leadership Must Be Positive

If Charles de Gaulle can restore confidence in France's control of its destiny, leadership throughout the Western World will share the benefits of his success.

"Nowhere in the world," declared Gen. de Gaulle in 1956, "does any government or any statesman seem to know what they want. Their only policy is to react to events. This is not a policy. Nowhere do the leaders know what they wish. Things have taken control. Events are leading men. We need responsible men in power. Small men cannot answer to the responsibilities of the world. Small men cannot handle great events. Great circumstances bring forth great men. Only during crises do nations throw up giants."

History will know whether Gen. de Gaulle is the giant France needs to restore its sense of purpose in the mid-20th century. But history already has confirmed that small men were unable to give the French positive leadership. De Gaulle is in power because they failed.

If he can measure up to his own specifications for leadership—and if he can revive French enthusiasm for a future in which French statesmen again will make events, instead of being the victims of events—there will be earnest thought about leadership in all the countries that have deplored their own lack of purpose.

THEY HAVE REACTED far too often to the events set in motion by the positive leadership of the Kremlin. Their government leaders have waited to see what the Kremlin had up its sleeve before they pulled on their coats. They have either been satisfied to stay on the defensive and counter-punch, or they have not known how to seize the offensive and thereby to put Russian leadership on the defensive.

When they have tried to rise above mediocrity and futility, they have been jerked up short by political opponents who either tried to tie their hands or weaken the impact of their leadership with prolonged questioning of their motives and their wisdom. Or, what has been worse, they have reacted with such ill-advised violence as the 1956 assault on Egypt, striving to restore with a military coup the prestige they had frittered away by decades of diplomatic failure.

LEADERSHIP that is worthy of its followers must be positive. It must be directed toward a goal. It must provide a sense of purpose and a pride of achievement.

Its followers must be able to believe they are getting somewhere; that they are not being led in circles.

They must not believe—ever—that those who are presuming to lead them are able to make the presumption because they happened to be the least positive and therefore the most acceptable.

Leaders should attain the responsibilities of leadership only through proof of capacity. And, having become leaders, they should represent to their followers the highest purposes and principles of the nation. They, themselves, should be the personification of those purposes and principles.

Gen. de Gaulle, who sometimes has been charged with arrogance, thinks of himself as the personification of what is best in France. It is increasingly important that he never has been charged with hypocrisy, or with bad faith.

His integrity has become France's last best hope for a resurgence of French influence in the 20th century world. If he succeeds in his mission, leadership everywhere will feel the impact of his example.

lating of no-parking rules. A million summonses in the year haven't accomplished a thing, says T. T. Wiley, New York Traffic Boss. He thinks CPVG (Civilian Parking Violation Gendarmes) may be necessary, with tow-away routines.

Where will you find room to put cars illegally parked in New York streets? Idle-wild?

THE STORY OF AFRICAN explorer Livingstone, and Stanley, who found him in African wilds, has been made into a TV feature. There was so much interference on our video set that we couldn't find either man.

De Gaulle's friends say he is not so aloof as he seems. They contend, however, that half "ALOOF" is better than none.

Robert C. Christenberry has been sworn in as postmaster for New York. He is former head of the state athletic commission, a lifelong hotel man and a losing candidate for mayor. This should make him a good postmaster. As hotel man he is accustomed to complaints; as a boxing czar he knows value of footwork; as the man who had Gracie Mansion as his goal he has had a tough experience with wrong addresses.

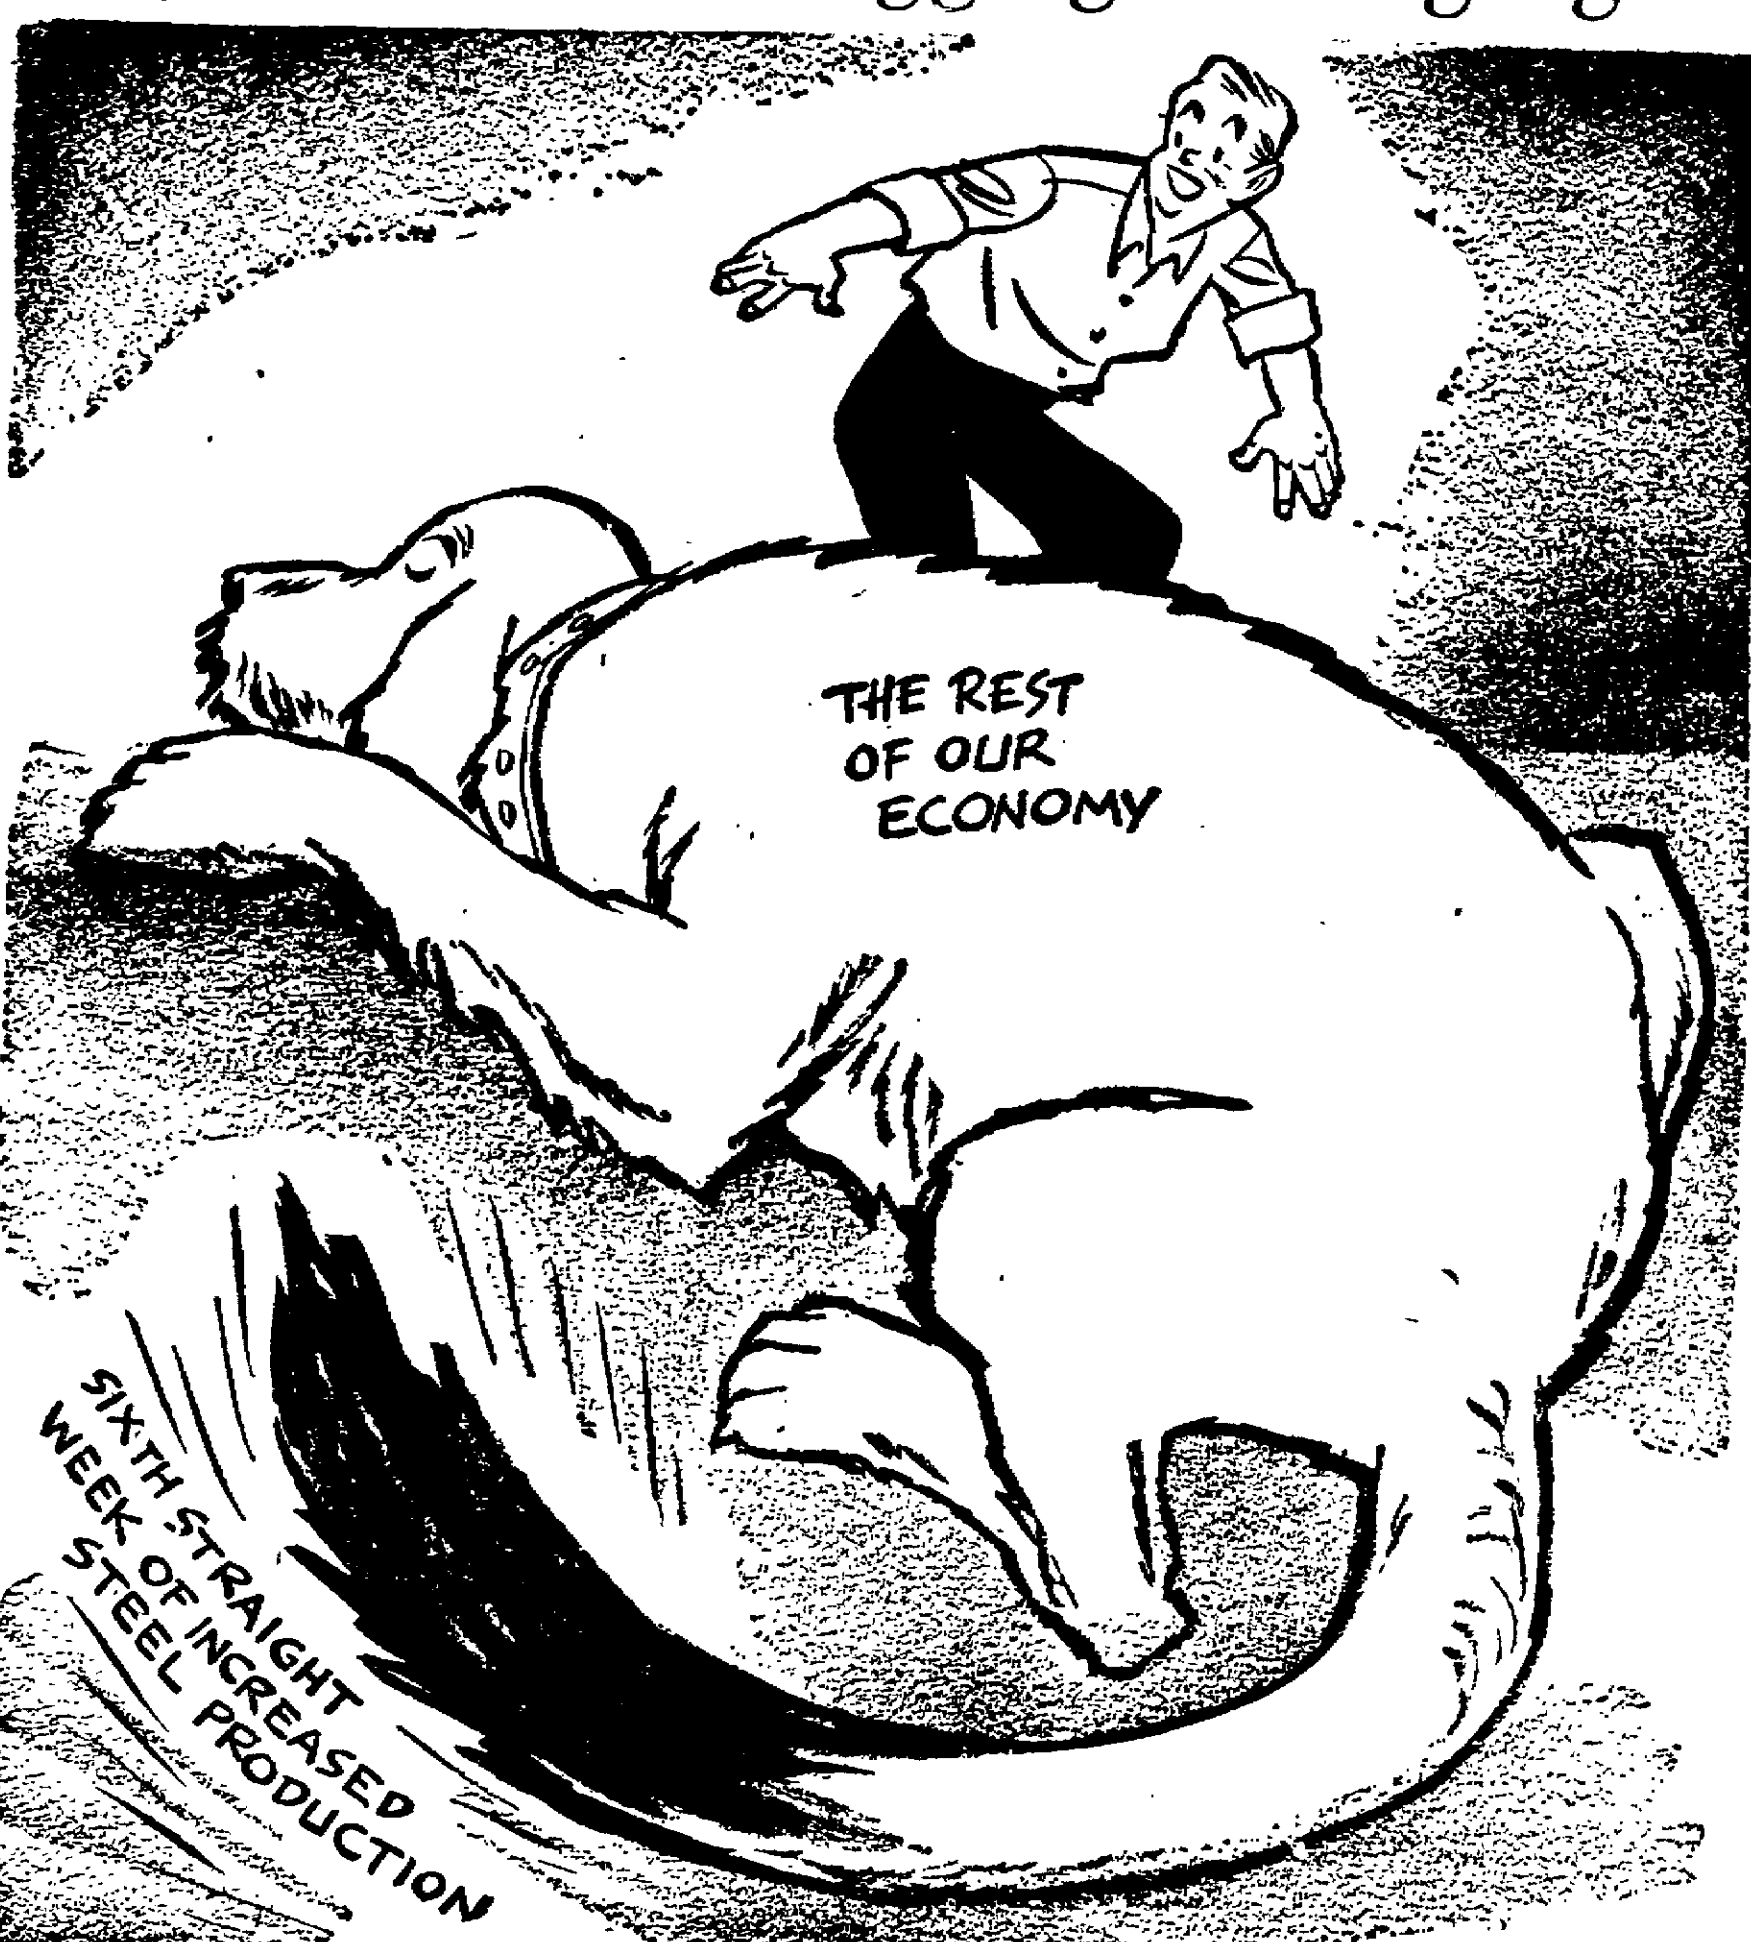

On a recent TV program was Mike Wallace interviewing Adlai Stevenson or was Stevenson interviewing Mike?

The sack style in women's attire has reached Asia. This should make it harder than ever to convince the Far East we are its friends.

De Gaulle has been a fabulous figure in the service of his country and is again in an heroic role but any casting director, giving him the once over today, would reject him as "not the type." (It is hard to find a man so tall who can look so short.)

Maybe It'll Start Wagging the Dog Again

No Fall Barometer

By David Lawrence

Anyone who jumps to conclusions about the vote in the primaries in California and assumes it is a sure index of the November result had better look back and examine the primary vote for governor in that same state in 1954.

It is apparent that under the peculiar system of cross-filing—whereby a candidate can run in both the Republican and Democratic primaries at the same time—the final election doesn't correspond at all either in totals or in percentages for each party with what has happened in the primary.

Thus, Gov. Knight, Republican, won nomination in both the Republican and Democratic primaries in 1954 with 63 per cent of the total vote cast. In the election, Knight's percentage dropped to 56.8 per cent.

His Democratic opponent, who accumulated 860,046 in the Democratic primaries and 112,919 in the Republican primary for a total of only 973,765, came up in the final election with a vote of 1,739,368. This was a gain of 765,603.

Gov. Knight, on the other hand, gained in the 1954 final election only 372,938 or only half as many votes as did the Democratic nominee.

The total vote cast in the 1954 primaries is also significant as compared with the final vote. The voters who cast their ballots in the Democratic primaries in 1954 totaled 1,700,753, whereas those who called themselves Republicans cast 1,337,899. This is a margin of 362,854 votes, which is about the same margin that the Democratic nominee, Edmund Brown, had over Sen. Knowland at latest reports of this week's primary.

IT WOULD APPEAR on the surface, of course, that Edmund Brown would have enough votes on the basis of the primary totals to win the final election but this assumes that the Republican total vote will not be gotten out that day. Most everyone who knows California politics agrees that the labor-union vote helped elect Gov. Knight, Republican, four years ago, whereas this time the labor-union vote is lined up solidly against Sen. Knowland, the Republican nominee for governor.

If the Republicans do not mobilize the voters who are outside the orbit of labor-union influences, they will, of course, lose the election. This same situation is indicated in other states where in the recent primaries, with the exception of New Jersey and Nebraska, the Democrats were able to get out a combined total for all their rival candidates greatly in excess of the Republicans.

There is no doubt about it—the Democrats are getting out their vote in the primary elections and if they continue their effective tactics in the fall elections and the Republicans stay at home, many a congressional seat will be lost to the Republicans.

THERE IS NO political organization today comparable to that of the labor unions.

Not only do they spend funds collected directly from the workers at the factories and actually pay expenses for electioneering which was classified as "educational" in a Detroit case prosecuted by the federal government but they have a vast number of "volunteers" who conduct the solicitation campaigns and bring workers to the polls.

No such electioneering has been done in recent years by either the Republican or Democratic parties.

Businessmen have been urged lately to form a citizens group to solicit money from individual workers in companies generally in an effort to win the votes of the large number of non-union workers in the country but this type of organization work has not been achieved as yet.

Indeed, there are said to be 175 members of Congress today who owe their election to the financial aid and active support given them by labor unions throughout the country.

Primaries are much more easily won by organization activity than are general elections. Sen. Knowland is popular in California and it may be that many Republicans didn't come out to vote because they thought he was an easy winner in the Republican primaries.

As for the Democratic primaries, his vote of 168,000 at last reports is possibly an indication that in the final election there may be more Democrats of the conservative school of thought who will go over to the Republican side just to vote for Sen. Knowland.

If the Republicans get out their vote, they will elect Sen. Knowland, but it will take hard campaigning to accomplish that result and mostly an appeal to the stay-at-home Californians who this week didn't go to the polls.

Battlefield Fantasy

By Hal Boyle

The scene is a future war. The American infantry is attacking.

Suddenly one platoon breaks away from the advancing line and zooms rapidly forward like a swarm of angry bees.

They take one hill, two hills, three hills—as the startled enemy panics and flees.

Later the whole platoon is called before the beaming general who says: "There has never been an exploit to match this in the entire annals of warfare. It's fantastic. I am proud of you men, and I'm recommending every one of you for the Medal of Honor."

THE MEMBERS of the platoon look uneasily at one another.

Finally an honest private blurts out: "Aw, hell, general we ain't no heroes. We just set our rear rocket motors too high—and could not stop. If we hadn't run out of fuel, we'd still be going."

This little fantasy could come true if a new portable rocket developed by an ex-Army technical sergeant works out. Strapped to the rear of a doughboy it holds promise of turning him into a combination racehorse and antelope.

"He can run faster, can jump across rivers, scale walls and cliffs, jump extraordinary heights—and not be tired when he gets there," said Alexander H. Bohr, the inventor.

SEVERAL INFANTRY veterans I discussed the rocket with were on the skeptical side.

"They're always thinking up ways to get a dogface into battle faster," said one. "What the dogface himself wants is a way to get him out of battle altogether—and for this, there's no better gadget than a general peace."

"If this rocket thing really makes it easier to get about," said a second, "it'll take it at least two generations to filter up to the front lines. And even then the rear area boys will keep all the latest models for their own conveniences."

"One thing you do have to admit," remarked a third. "It sure is a hell of a handy instrument for going AWOL in a hurry."

"No, it won't," said a fourth. "The Military Police will have rockets with double motors."

THE ARMY, of course, is testing dozens of ideas to make it easier for the dogface to do his task in battle.

But no old infantryman ever believes anyone will ever make his job comfortable. Throughout history he knows the problem of the dogface has always been the same.

The picture is always the same—a scattered group of men with a thousand-yard stare in their tired eyes stumbling up a forlorn hill to root out a dug-in enemy.

So it was on Normandy 14 years ago today—behind the beach stood the first of a thousand hills. And so, the oldtimers believe, all ways will be for the infantry as long as there are wars.

Diplomacy in the Rough

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Maybe we're being brainwashed. Nikita Khrushchev, full of tricks, is working on us overtime.

Time was, in the not so olden days, when nations did business through formal notes and stiff, polite and frigid diplomatic visits.

This had its usefulness: a nation which wanted to feel dignified or superior could keep on doing so.

It was pretty much against the rules to get a rock through the front window or a palsy-walsy shout across the back fence.

There's no doubt this country for a long time felt superior to the Soviet Union. Then Nikita Khrushchev bounced in, too round and fat for a stuffed shirt.

PRETTY SOON, with his speeches and statements broadcast to the world, he began to drum it into the world's consciousness that the Soviet Union was anyone's equal.

Just as a nudge, in case there was still doubt, the Soviets shot up their Sputniks.

The past few months are a pretty good example of how the Soviets threw the old-fashioned rule book out the window.

Khrushchev's running-mate, the then Premier Bulganin, last December dashed off a note to President Eisenhower, proposing a summit conference.

Then, without politely waiting for this country to reveal the contents, the Soviets made the letter public.

THEY MADE a summit conference look simple. It was a we're-all-members-of-the-same-club kind of note.

The Soviets not only made themselves look like jolly peace lovers but got the idea across to the rest of the world, no matter what the effect here.

To make matters worse: before Eisenhower answered this first letter, Bulganin wrote him another.

er. It's been that way ever since: letter after letter.

When Khrushchev managed to push Bulganin aside and took his place as premier, he borrowed his pen too and kept on writing to Eisenhower.

But the Soviet method towards this country can be stated simply: keep 'em off balance. Khrushchev mixes his pitches.

AT ONE TIME he writes or talks together; at another time, in a speech somewhere or at a cocktail party, he calls us warmongers.

He talks one time of peaceful coexistence and another of communism's taking over the world. All the letters and statements manage to get broadcast or reported.

Pretty soon, having hopped over the formal diplomatic barriers, the Soviets had forced Eisenhower to write letters to them. If he didn't, it would be just so much more propaganda gravy for the Soviets.

There can't be much doubt now that everyone, inside or outside the United States, is adjusted to the idea the Soviets are equal to this country, and in some ways superior. In missiles, for example.

FOR A MAN like Secretary of State Dulles, who has spent most of his life in formal diplomacy, this Soviet method of slap-'em-on-the-back and kick-'em-in-the-pants must get disturbing.

As long ago as last Jan. 10—at his news conference—Dulles complained about the Bulganin letter-writing to Eisenhower.

He said the Soviets are using "the channels of communications between the heads of government as a means of what might be called propaganda techniques rather than to use them seriously, as it seems to us befits messages between heads of government, given the serious state of international affairs."

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I am ready to quit laughing at gags about Elvis Presley in uniform if comics will quit making them. I never thought they were funny in the first place.

My private thought about the crisis in French politics is that U.S. politicians who play politics for its own sake should keep their eyes peeled and their ears cocked. It could happen to them.

The thought has occurred to me in connection with my forthcoming class reunion that the old gaffers who used to show up at commencement time felt no older then than I do now.

Just to keep the record straight on baldness, the summer sun is just as hard to bear as winter gale when nature has deprived a man of his insulation. Hence the hat on the bald man's head in both situations.

Nothing bolsters my enthusiasm for free enterprise like a service station attendant who gets all the bugs off a windshield and cleans off the headlights for good measure.

Some people can bring on a rain by washing a car. My sure-fire rain dance is to get all fouled up in a derelict with a garden hose long enough to reach the new tomato plants I have set out. It always rains before I can get the hose reeled up again.

Whatever doubts anyone may have had about the big Memorial Day race at the Indianapolis Speedway must have been removed by the latest one. It is not, repeat NOT, a sporting event.

A schoolteacher who has given the matter careful thought explains that girls do better than boys in routine classroom work because they carry out only the assignments they are given, whereas boys carry out too many assignments they have not been given.

An oddity about summer in this part of the world is that it is nearly half over when most of us think it is beginning, which is during the first few days of June.

A recent contribution to the candy jar that stands on my desk was old-fashioned horehound candy, which I had supposed to be extinct. It is just as tasty as it was when I broke my baby teeth on it. I wish Norman Rockwell would draw a Statepost cover of an elderly couple playing with their first power mower—the scene when Mom takes over for an experimental round while Pop stands and laughs.

Weather, in my opinion, was easier to take in stride before there was all this talk about cold fronts and warm fronts bearing down on collision courses that would reach a climax day after tomorrow.

One of the things children can do that grownups miss doing is to roll down grassy banks. No one ever completely outgrows the urge, but everybody outgrows the ability about the time he casts his first vote.

For some reason I cannot be sure of, it seems to me to be contempt when anyone addresses me as "Buddy," though it started out as a term of friendship.

My mother-in-law, who cannot stand to see her son-in-law boot a trespassing cat through an open door, reports that she went to see a bullfight in Madrid during a trip to Spain, which will be a damaging admission when she comes home.

Miss Busch Feted

Miss Florence Busch, a Marion city and county teacher for more than 40 years, was honored at a retirement tea held Thursday afternoon by the Mark St. faculty and PTA in the school auditorium.

An orchid and a gift from the PTA was presented to the retiring teacher by Mrs. Floyd Swisher. She was honored by a faculty gift presented by Paul Bingman, Mark St. principal.

THE VETERAN teacher has devoted 40 years to her profession in Marion schools. A second grade teacher at Mark St. for the last 18 years, she previously spent 18 years at N. Main St. and two at Oak St.

A native of Caledonia, she has lived there all her life and presently resides with her sister, Miss Lorella Busch. She attended Kent and Bowling Green state universities.

Before coming to Marion to teach, she spent some time as teacher in the county's rural schools.

At the end of a long career of service to education, she declared: "I never would want to be anything else but a teacher." In many cases she has taught two generations of pupils in the same family.

PUNCH DURING the afternoon tea was served from a table decorated in spring pastel colors and centered with a large punch bowl with floating roses. Crystal appointments were used and the table was graced with candles and flowers. The decoration scheme was yellow, green and pink.

Guests in addition to Marion teachers and friends were Miss Jean Busch of Cleveland, a niece of the honored guest; Miss Philomena Gregg, elementary supervisor; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lindsay and a group of friends from Caledonia and retired teachers from the Marion County chapter of retired teachers. Mr. Lindsay is one of Miss Busch's former teachers.

$44 Million in 3 Years

Ohio Industries Share Foreign Aid Contracts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio seems an unlikely place to spend foreign aid money. Nevertheless, 44½ million dollars went to Ohio industries under this program during a 3½-year period.

This was disclosed today in a table compiled for senators backing the military and economic aid program now under consideration. Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) claims the figures support his contention that 85 per cent of foreign aid money is spent in domestic industries.

The table shows where the International Cooperation Administration (ICA) bought materials from U.S. firms from January 1954 to June 30, 1957.

Some of the Ohio cities where ICA money was spent, together with samples of the largest contractors:

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Selected industrial moved forward in an erratic stock market early this afternoon to push the general price level toward another high for the year. Trading was fairly active.

Leading rails showed little change.

Key stocks gained narrowly, generally within a point. Small losses and unchanged prices were scattered.

Oils, aircrafts, motors and steels were mostly higher. Rubbers and motion picture stocks also showed plus signs. Chemicals, base metals and tobaccos were irregular.

Market background included the report of the House-Senate economic committee which said the nation's economy might not get back on its feet until late 1960. Meanwhile, auto assemblies were estimated at a higher rate.

The news that unemployment had dropped below five million for the first time since January was another bullish factor.

Sludabaker-Packard jumped 1/2 to 6 on a block of 6,000 shares. American added a fraction.

Lorillard added about a point, and American Tobacco dropped a major fraction.

Gains of about a point were made by Sinclair, Texas Co. and Zenith. Du Pont's price fluttered uncertainly, erasing a one-point gain.

U.S. government bonds improved.

Mount Gilead's Council Hears Civic Problems

Discusses Parking, Bus Stops, Operation Of New Village Dump

MOUNT GILEAD — Parking, bus stops and the new village dump site and its problems occupied most of the attention of the Mount Gilead Village Council at the regular meeting this week.

A representative of the Greyhound Company and businessmen Joe Lloyd and Virgil Stotts were present to discuss the parking problems that would arise if bus stops were provided on both sides of the street in front of the Melody Inn restaurant.

Want To Limit Parking

Council proposed that the bus stops be left in front of the Melody Inn but that the north side of both the east and west parking lot of the public square be limited to two hour parking. Council is expected to adopt an ordinance limiting the parking at a future meeting. The new ordinance is also expected to provide several additional 10-minute parking zones including two in front of the new Peoples Bank.

The new dump site and its problems were again discussed. Council has not officially taken any action as yet on the matter but is expected to do so in a future meeting.

Don Covert, member of council, explained that in moving from the present dump site which has been sold to the Farm Bureau to the new site near the village sewage treatment plant the State Health Department requested that the sanitary fill method of garbage disposal be used.

This would have to be done by one of three methods he said: 1. By the city maintaining the dump and hauling garbage and refuse; 2. By contracting for hauling of garbage with the city taking care of the dump, or 3. By a contractor maintaining the dump and hauling.

Agree on Last Plan

He said council members had tentatively agreed upon the last method as being the most satisfactory and that council was now in the process of making arrangements to let bids for the operation of the dump and the making of collections.

Mr. Covert said the new method virtually eliminates rats and flies. Under the proposal village residents could take their own burnables, tin cans, bottles and other refuse (but not garbage) to the dump on one day each week, probably Saturday. Collection of garbage would all have to be made by the dump operator, however, so that it would be properly disposed of at the dump. A bulldozer would be used to bury garbage in dug trenches under the new method.

Tentative plans call for the collection of garbage and trash (up to 40 gallons limit) once every other week by the contractor with additional services provided for businessmen who need it. Estimated cost is believed to be from $1 to $1.25 per home per month.

Reuther Moves To Preserve Uneasy Truce in Auto Industry

Plymouth Is Shut Down By Chrysler

100 UAW Members Walk Off Job; Rest Of Force Sent Home

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. today shut down assembly operations at its Plymouth body and assembly plants in Detroit. This was the first such action by any of the car makers during operations without labor contracts. The company said 2,700 employees were sent home after 100 members of the United Auto Workers union walked off the job in the trim department of the Plymouth body plant. The UAW, which has instructed all members to work as usual during a non-contract period, had no immediate comment. Chrysler said two employees who served as union stewards refused to work at assigned jobs and provoked a walkout. The shutdown came as the UAW president, Walter P. Reuther, sought to prevent incidents involving Chrysler and General Motors and Chrysler Thursday from disrupting the uneasy truce in auto industry contract negotiations.

Reuther, after getting reports from top aides on the Chrysler and General Motors situations, repeated his order that the UAW members must keep peace at all costs in auto plants until contracts can be worked out. Nearly 500,000 UAW members have been working without a contract since the old three-year pacts expired, GM on May 29 and Ford and Chrysler Sunday. The first incident occurred Wednesday night when pickets, ringed the General Motors Fisher Body plant near Pittsburgh. Pa. Leonard Woodcock, head of the union's GM negotiating committee, said the dispute centered about local grievances. Pickets at the plant were removed Thursday night and production was resumed by the overnight shift.

Goodrich, Union Open Wage Talks

The United Rubber Workers and the B. F. Goodrich Co. opened negotiations in Cleveland Thursday on the union's demands for higher wages and pension and insurance improvements. The talks will cover some 15,000 workers in Akron and Marion, and seven other cities outside the state. The union is seeking "a substantial increase" in wages, but has not specified the amount. The average straight time rate for Goodrich employees is now $2.51 an hour. Negotiations on similar demands will be opened by the union and the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. in Cleveland next Tuesday. Affected will be 23,000 workers in Akron and St. Marys, Ohio, and nine other cities outside Ohio.

Tries To Enter University

Negro Educator Jailed In Mississippi's Capital

Associated Press staffer Douglas Starr and two staff members of the Jackson (Miss.) Daily News were the only newsmen to contact Negro Prof. Clennon King after he was jailed for trying to enter the all-white University of Mississippi. They managed to enter the building undetected and taped an interview. Shortly afterwards, state police barred anyone from seeing King, who tried to become the first Negro to enter a white school in Mississippi.

By DOUGLAS STARR

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Negro Prof. Clennon King earned an isolated jail cell today for his efforts to cross the state's rigid racial lines. He said his attempt to enter the University of Mississippi is ended. The 37-year-old former faculty member at the all-Negro Alcorn A&M (Miss.) College was whisked away by state highway patrolmen Thursday when he tried to enter the summer session at the university. His whereabouts were top secret.

McElroy Asks Huge Slash in Defense Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy today asked senators to trim out a quarter of a billion dollars voted by the House to prevent cutbacks in manpower of the Army and Marines regular and reserve forces. "As we see the situation today, there is no requirement for numbers of military personnel in excess of those requested in the President's budget for 1959," he told the Senate Appropriations subcommittee. He was the opening witness on the biggest annual money bill, carrying about $38.4 billion dollars, for operation of the nation's military forces for the year that begins July 1. Although the House-passed bill was only 212½ millions above the Eisenhower requests, McElroy noted that this involved reductions of more than 900 millions in budget requests and increases of over $1,120,000,000 above Pentagon plans. McElroy accepted part of the House changes but urged senators to restore a good share of the cuts. He said the department may not spend some of the increases. Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said in an interview before McElroy testified that he expected the Senate to back the House in providing money to avoid a manpower cutback. Chavez is chairman of a Senate Appropriations subcommittee starting consideration of a House-passed bill to provide $38,409,561,000 for defense in the fiscal year starting July 1. He said senators "are anxious to give Secretary of Defense McElroy every dollar he needs but not a dime to waste." As the defense money bill reached the Senate, it carried $212,614,000 more than asked by McElroy and President Eisenhower.

As such, he will lead the U.S. delegation to an international scientific conference on peaceful uses of atomic energy in Geneva, Switzerland, next September. Strauss was named to the AEC by former President Truman in 1946, soon after the agency was created. He served until 1950 and then was appointed by Eisenhower in June 1953 to succeed Gordon Dean as chairman. For the past several months, he reportedly has been locked in a dispute with Secretary of State Dulles over U.S. policy on nuclear testing.

Damage in Eau Claire County was less severe. The Small Business Administration in Washington announced it has designated the three counties as disaster areas, making home owners and businessmen eligible for loans at 3 per cent interest. The Department of Agriculture announced plans to make surplus food available, as well as reconstruction loans for farmers.

Patrol Reports One Four-Car Pileup at Corporation Limits

Two persons were injured in two of eight traffic accidents investigated Thursday by Marion police. Four cars were involved in the only accident reported by local patrolmen. It caused no injuries. Hurt when her car was struck from the rear by a hit-skip driver at 4:10 p.m. was Mrs. Leonard Morrison, 37, of 369 Clover Ave. She suffered a neck injury, but required no immediate medical attention. The accident occurred at George St. and N. Grand Ave. Mrs. Morrison was traveling east on George St. and had stopped when the other unidentified car struck her car from the rear. Hurt when the funeral coach in which he was riding was struck from the rear in the 300 block on Mt. Vernon Ave. at 4:10 p.m. was Thomas Rodgers of 381 Windsor St. He suffered neck injuries and injuries to his left arm, but required no immediate medical attention. Driver of the funeral car was Richard H. Hyll, 27, of 318 Mt. Vernon Ave. Driver of the car which struck the funeral coach from the rear was G. L. Louderback, 24, of near Marion. Both vehicles were traveling east and the funeral coach was making a left turn into the driveway of the Hughes-Hill Mortuary. A collision on W. Center St. just west of Olney Ave. at 6:10 p.m. involved cars driven by J. E. Bishop, 40, of Mansfield, and Clifford E. Hoch, 46, of 235 Cummins Ave. Hoch was traveling east and made a left turn into the path of the other car which was west-bound. Hoch was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated and was slated to appear in Marion Municipal Court today. A car driven by William Adams, 45, of N. Greenwood St., was struck from the rear in the 400 block on N. Main St. at 5:36 p.m. Driver of the other car was J. J. Baumgartner, 17, of near Prospect. A truck driven by Jay Little Jr., 26, of 954 N. State St. and a car driven by Luther Simms, 51, of 602 Jefferson St., collided at Bellefontaine Ave. and Miami St. at 4:21 p.m. Each of the other three accidents in the city caused less than $100 total damage, police estimated.

Timken Plans Investment in Plants in Ohio

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Timken Roller Bearing Co. announced today it is investing $1 million dollars in a five-year period, including this year, to expand facilities and install new equipment. A major item will be 12½ million dollars for modernization of its steel and tubes division here, including installation of new equipment. Another 12½ million will be spent on plants in Australia, Canada and France. A new bearing plant in Melbourne will receive its first machinery this month and will go into production before the summer is over. About 3½ million will be spent to install new automatic screw machines in its local plant; 3 million for new grinding and finishing equipment in Canton, Columbus and Bucyrus, Ohio; and 1 million for heat treating equipment at Canton and Columbus plants.

Mrs. John Mann of Barberton. The Associated Press quoted the young Mann as saying that he and the Hazuka brothers were walking east on the trestle, "playing a game along the tracks to see who could stay on a track the longest." He said he heard Ronald yell a warning that a train was approaching. "I saw its light," he said. "I turned around and ran." "If Ronald hadn't yelled, I would have got hit, too. I didn't hear a bell or whistle or anything," he said. TED TOLD newsmen he was last in line as the boys were walking east. That put him in the lead when they turned to run off the trestle. High steel barriers prevented the youths from jumping to a clear eastbound track or off the bridge. The tragic accident happened at about 2:40 p.m. while the train was en route from Kent to Marion. According to the Erie superintendent's office here, the train was delayed at the scene about an hour. Spanning the Akron - Barberton inter-belt railroad line, the trestle is between 25 and 30 feet high. Mr. Finley was quoted by a newspaper as saying he was upset by the number of parents who brought their children to the scene immediately after the accident, inviting a repeat tragedy.

Entry Deadline Nearing For Holstein Program

Marion area Holstein breeders have just four more days to get their entry blanks for the National Holstein Futurity, Inc., at this summer's Ohio State Fair to F. D. Lawrence. The deadline date is June 10 for the fourth and final $10 payment for each entry. The show is designed to determine the best three-year-old Holstein cow for 1958. The Marion Holstein Club is one of several organizations donating trophies. To the cow rated the highest butterfat producer of the show will go the local award. The show champion will get 20 per cent of the futurity purse of $400. Other places will receive lesser percentages of the purse total. Entries have already been received from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, Indiana and California, according to Mr. Lawrence.

Job Situation Better in May, Report Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported today an improved employment situation in May. There was a substantial rise among those employed and a decline in the number of idle workers. A joint report by the Commerce and Labor Departments put May employment at 64,061,000, up 1,154,000 from April. Unemployment declined by 216,000 to 4,904,000—lowest idle figure since January. The job gain was attributed to seasonal expansion in agriculture and service employment plus a bigger than usual gain in construction. The report said a sharp pickup in outdoor work represented in part recovery from delay caused by especially bad weather earlier in the year.

ing his address. He was introduced by Robert S. Brown, superintendent of Marion public schools. THE CLASS OF 342 students was presented by Darl Gatchell, Harding principal, who cited the group as outstanding in service, attitude and leadership. Accepting the students on behalf of the Marion City Board of Education was Paul W. Kohler, president. He congratulated seniors for their accomplishments and presented graduates with their diplomas, assisted by Rodney S. Cox, board member. First to receive the scrolls were class officers: Stephen L. Jenkins, president; James R. Anspaugh, vice president; Margaret Ann Romine, secretary, and Stephen H. Donithen, treasurer. Donithen was recognized as class valedictorian and Nancy N. Waddell as salutatorian. Assisting in the distribution of diplomas was Ray J. Silver, Harding assistant principal. Also participating in the activity was Jacqueline Taft. A white carnation was presented to each graduate by Jill Houser, president-elect of the student council. The carnation is the class flower and the motto is "To be, rather than to seem." Graduates sang the class song, written by Patricia Jo Fetter and Miss Romine. Song leader was Miss Fetter. Three vocal numbers were presented by the Harding Choir under the direction of L. G. Jones, music instructor. They were: "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," Cain; "Almighty God of Our Fathers," James, and "My God and I," Sergei.

Four Cars Damaged

Four Marion cars were involved in a bumper to bumper jostle at 4:25 p.m. Thursday on Rt. 23 at the city corporation limits. The non-injury mishap was the only one reported in the county by local patrolmen. Officers said a southbound auto driven by Glenn D. Tackett, 21, of 3484 W. Church St. set off the jostle when his car struck the rear end of the third vehicle in a line stopped for a traffic light. The impact sent the jolt through the line to the first car, patrolmen said, damaging all of them. Drivers of the three stopped cars were: Stanley I. McCombs, 53, of 429 Claridon Ave., whose car was hit by Tackett; Everett C. Geyer, 48, of 513 Forest-Lawn Blvd., whose car was hit by McCombs and James H. Neidhart, 19, of 211 E. Washington St., whose auto was struck by Neidhart's. Patrolmen said minor damage was done to all but the McCombs vehicle which was considerably damaged. Tackett was charged with failure to stop within assured clear distance and will appear in Municipal Court at a later date.

Livestock Events Slated By County Youth Clubs

A fitting and showing demonstration for all Marion County 4-H and FFA youths will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Junior Fair livestock building on the county fairgrounds. John Nicholson, associate county extension director, says all phases of both fitting and showing will be explained and demonstrated by experts, and parents and club and chapter advisers are invited to attend. Individuals in charge of the several categories are as follows: Richard Lawrence, dairy; Larry Duprey, beef; Robert Gray and Edwin Baker, both of Byhalia, sheep; Tom Guthery, swine; and Mrs. Sam Hinamon, rabbits. Some 200 persons attended last year's program.

Gets Life Sentence

CLEVELAND (AP) — Charles Rogers, 24, pleaded guilty in Common Pleas Court Thursday to a charge of second degree murder and was sentenced to life in the Ohio Penitentiary. He was charged with the fatal stabbing of Lawrence Lavler, 41, a special policeman who tried to evict him from an East Side bar.

Senate Labor Unit Hopes for Acceptable Bill

McClellan's Support Is Sought; Reforms Would Be Required

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chances of shaping a labor bill that can win the support of Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) appeared improved today. The full Senate Labor Committee goes back to work on the bill again with a Saturday session planned if necessary to finish the measure. Sponsors of a middle-of-the-road bill consider McClellan's support important because he is chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee. The findings of that group have stirred up much of the support for labor control legislation at this session of Congress. McClellan himself has proposed stiffer federal regulation of labor unions than that provided in the pending bill of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.). The bill among other things would require secret election of union officers and limit the length of their terms. It also would require full public reporting of union affairs. On the other hand, it would repeal or modify some Taft Hartley provisions opposed by labor leaders. The committee, in its only vote during the first day of consideration of the bill, defeated 8-5 an amendment by Sen. William A. Purtell (R-Conn.) to require a vote by a union's membership before striking.

eyes; three fingers missing from right hand. Both inmates were wearing regulation dungarees and blue shirts at the time of their getaway. Aversch was wearing shop coveralls over his prison outfit. Aversch was sentenced from Hamilton County to a prison term of 5-30 years and was admitted to the Ohio State Penitentiary June 3, 1955. Denoon entered the state penitentiary Nov. 8, 1955 after being sentenced from Franklin County to a 1-20 year term. Both men were transferred here Sept. 29, 1956. Aversch earned the honor status last November and Denoon in September. They would have been eligible to appear before the parole board in October, Mr. Green said. The car in which they made their escape was described as a 1954 model green and yellow Chevrolet coach, bearing the license number 1942WR. Mr. Green asked that anyone spotting either the car or suspicious persons answering the description of the two men, report immediately to the nearest law enforcement officials.

Columbus Man Dies After Brawl At Buckeye Lake

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A fist fight after an all night drinking party ended in the death of Herbert C. Mechlin, 39, of Columbus, at Hunt's Landing, Buckeye Lake Thursday night. The Licking County sheriff's office reported that James Wolf, 22, trailer resident at the lake, is being held for investigation of manslaughter. Deputies said Wolf admitted knocking Mechlin down. Also held as material witnesses are Ralph Anderson, 47, of Grandview, Columbus suburb, and Miss Judy Martin, 36, of Columbus. Deputies said Mechlin, Anderson and Miss Martin went to Wolf's trailer home after visiting several Columbus bars, and an argument and the fight followed. Mechlin was dead upon arrival at Newark City Hospital. An autopsy has been scheduled to determine exact cause of death.

Polaris Missile Is Tried Out by Navy

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Navy Polaris experimental missile streaked skyward today on what was described as its toughest test yet. The slim rocket roared straight up for some 20 seconds but then seemed to break apart shortly after it moved toward a more horizontal course. At least one section plummeted into the ocean where crash boats were standing by. The Navy said in a brief announcement that the mission was to test certain components of the Navy Polaris missile system under more difficult conditions than on previous launchings. The last time the trim Lockheed rocket was fired on May 8 it burst apart with a huge flash of flame shortly after takeoff, but the Navy announced that the breakup was expected and the test appeared to be normal.

Date of Special Session Awaits Court's Action

Qualified Approval Is Voiced; House Fails To Vote Reductions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The exact date for opening the special session of the Legislature will not be announced until the Ohio Supreme Court indicates its course in the supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) question, Gov. C. William O'Neill said Thursday. Aides of the governor said they expect such an indication from the high court shortly. The court has agreed to review lower court decisions upsetting an administrative ruling that workers cannot receive SUB and state jobless compensation at the same time. But it has not indicated how soon hearings can be held on the appeals in two test cases. O'Neill's statement followed a conference with House Speaker Roger Cloud (R-Logan) and Sen. C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens); Senate majority leader. However, the governor again said the session would begin no later than June 30. O'Neill said he and the legislative leaders discussed methods of handling subjects to be included in the special session call. So far there are four—extending the period of jobless benefits, an interstate highway billboard ban, more poor relief appropriations, and revision of sewer and water line extension laws.

the things that need to be done. "I have not changed my basic ideas at all. Some of them are being expressed for the first time for the simple reason this is the first time they needed to be expressed." Since his heart attack last January—which probably gave him a longer period of quiet than he ever had in his adult life—Ohio's first-term Republican governor has what appears to be a "take-charge" attitude for the first time. O'Neill probably faces a stiff test of his leadership in the coming special session of the Legislature. A serious slip during those days could be politically fatal—and O'Neill appears to sense it. But you get the idea he's rather looking forward to a fight.

ington to a five-year term on the General Hospital board of trustees. He succeeds William Campbell of LaRue who resigned at the expiration of his term on June 1. In other business, the commissioners granted the R. G. Kneeler Construction Co. of Findlay a 45-day extension for completion of clearing and excavating in connection with improvements to the Hinamon and Roberts - Hill - Monnett Ditch in northeastern Marion County. The firm, which was awarded the ditch contract last October, was to have completed the clearing and excavation by June 1. The commissioners extended the completion date to July 15 because inclement weather has delayed excavating work.

Nation's Top Businessmen Back Tax Cut

Qualified Approval Is Voiced; House Fails To Vote Reductions

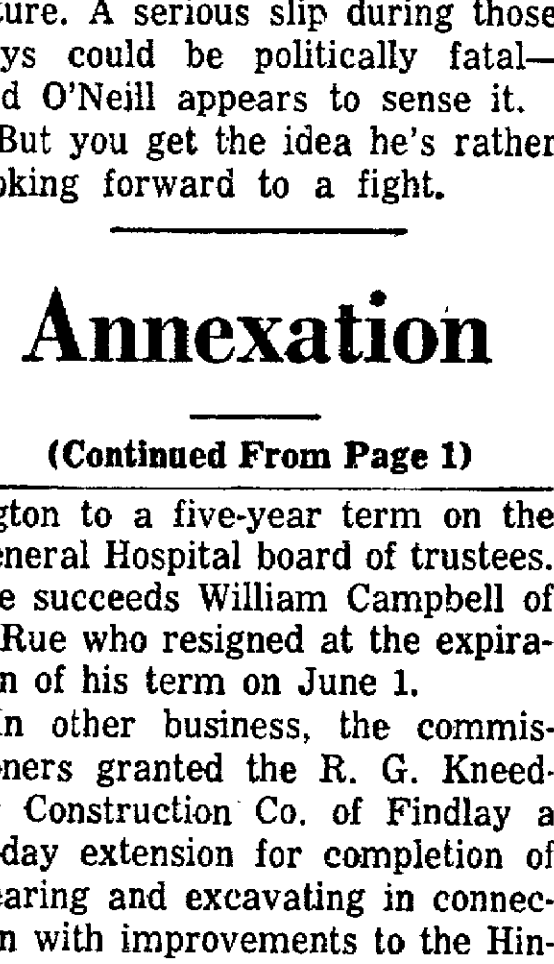

WASHINGTON (AP) — A number of leading businessmen have given qualified backing to tax cutting as an anti-recession measure. But even as their views were made public Thursday, the House voted to continue present tax rates on corporation income and certain items such as automobiles, cigarettes, whisky, beer and wine. Although many House members would like to cut taxes this election year, they went along with the decision of their leaders and the Eisenhower administration against any reduction at this session. The main reason: prospective big budget deficits. The Senate is expected to follow the same course, although efforts probably will be made there to gain tax relief for the ailing automobile and rail industries. The business leaders, "responding to a questionnaire from the Senate Finance Committee, were by no means enthusiastic about the idea of tax reduction. Most of the 14 men polled by the committee favored caution in employing government action to bring about an economic upturn. There were expressions of concern that such action might spur inflation.

Awards To Be Given Skinner, Mrs. Beal, Baird, Nina Jo Baker

DELAWARE—The Ohio Wesleyan University Alumni Association will honor four of its members with Alumni Awards at the annual Alumni Luncheon Saturday in Delaware.

Baird, auditor of the Society for Savings Bank at Cleveland, and Mrs. Bessie Robinson Beal, former alumni editor of the Ohio Wesleyan Magazine.

Graduated in 1927

Since becoming a member of the headquarters staff of the public relations department of U.S. Steel in 1953, he has engaged in a wide variety of writing and editorial assignments. He and his family live in Bronxville, N. Y.

Miss Baker, a 1925 graduate, has taught at Elyria since 1928. She also was director of dramatics there until 1954 and this season directed the community theater's production of "Inherit the Wind," co-authored by one of her former students, Robert E. Lee, also an Ohio Wesleyan alumnus.

Miss Baird has served as president of the Lorain County OWU Alumni Association and last spring was general chairman of that group's annual meeting.

Mr. Baird, who has served as auditor of Society for Savings since 1940, was graduated from OWU in 1926. He spent 12 years in the general accounting department of White Motor Co. at Cleveland, and one year in public accounting with Meredith and Wilson of Cleveland.

Antitrust Charges Reinstated By FTC Against Timken Co.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Antitrust charges against the Timken Roller Bearing Co. of Canton, Ohio, have been reinstated by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

The FTC overruled a commission examiner by a 4-1 vote Thursday and reaffirmed its 1956 complaint charging that the company bars its distributors from handling competitive products in the replacement market.

Timken is the world's largest manufacturer of tapered roller bearings. The FTC accused Timken on Feb. 13, 1956, of having an exclusive-dealing policy that might substantially lessen competition in violation of the Clayton Antitrust Act.

The commission later turned over its evidence to William L. Pack, a commissioner examiner, who granted a company motion for dismissal on grounds that a prima facie (on the face) case had not been established.

Majority Opinion

Commissioner William C. Kern, however, said in the majority opinion Thursday: "From our examination of the present record we are satisfied that the evidence received affords the basis for reasonably concluding, in the absence of countervailing proof, that during the period covered by the complaint, respondent (Timken) regularly and consistently required its authorized distributors and authorized jobbers not to deal in the taper roller bearings manufactured by others."

Timken has not presented its side of the case, the commission said, but added: "We are convinced that the allegations of the complaint have been prima facie made out."

The commission opinion said the complaint was supported by memoranda and company correspondence that authorized cancellation of agreements with dealers carrying competitive products.

The FTC majority conceded that written contracts between Timken and its distributors do not provide for exclusive dealing. Further Disagreement

The commission majority also disagreed with the examiner by saying he should not have discontinued the value of certain exhibits on grounds of "remoteness in point of time" and "their extremely small number in relation to the number of respondent's dealers."

The exhibits, dealing with the period 1949-54, are timely enough, the commission said, adding that it did not have to "undertake an exhaustive enumeration" of instances in which the law may have been violated.

Marion and Morrow counties chalked up a total of six fatalities in highway accidents during May, the highest figure recorded in more than five years, Cpl. D. M. Dewalt, commander of the local patrol post said today in reporting last month's activity.

He said only four fatal accidents occurred but two of them resulted in double deaths.

Patrolmen investigated 47 accidents during the month with 17 persons injured in 12 of them, the corporal said.

Other activity included: arrests, 212, with 186 for traffic violations; warnings, 818; special details, 27; safety talks, 13; recovered property, $350; drivers examined, 488; registration fees, $32.50; PUCO inspections, 21, and assistance rendered, 11.

The patrol head urged motorists to exercise caution in driving on streets and highways, especially during the summer season during which traffic is the heaviest.

Auto Accident Near Crestline Injures Four

Three Girls Admitted To Hospital; Car Fails To Negotiate Curve

BUCYRUS — Four persons were injured in one of two accidents reported today by patrolmen of the Bucyrus post.

Officers said the injury mishap occurred on Rt. 181, about one mile south of Crestline at 11:35 p.m. Thursday when a westbound auto driven by Henrietta Mayfield, 16, of near Galion, failed to negotiate a curve and struck a dirt embankment.

Driver Suffers Lacerations

Injured were: the driver, lacerations of the face and head; Kristi Fields, 10, of Galion, abrasions of the right knee; Penni Fields, 8, of Galion, abrasions of the knee, forehead and leg, and Vicki Fields, 10, of Galion, possible fractured ankle.

The four were treated at Crestline Memorial Hospital with all but Kristi Fields admitted, patrolmen said.

According to the report the auto was badly damaged. The accident still is under investigation.

Driver Arrested

A Chatfield area man was charged with failure to yield the right of way after his auto attempted a left turn into the path of an oncoming vehicle on Rt. 4 and the two collided at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, patrolmen said.

Arrested was Charles F. Lust, 79, whose auto crossed in front of a south-bound car driven by Richard E. Wilson, 49, of Chatfield, officers said.

Moderate damage was done to both vehicles in the non-injury mishap, one and one-half miles north of Bucyrus, it was reported. Lust will appear before Mayor J. L. Sullivan here at a later date in answer to the charge.

Mays Hikes Mark to .424 In Bid To Overtake Musial

By The Associated Press
It's a bit early to start talking about batting champs, but junk the calendar and take a look at that battle between Stan Musial and Willie Mays in the National League. It's a 420-plus pip.

Stan The Man, at 37 the "Old Guard" who has won four of his seven hitting titles in the last 8 seasons, is a slummin' .426. And Willie, 10 years Musial's junior, has picked up 17 points in three days for a .424 average.

Richie Ashburn of Philadelphia, the next in line, is almost 70 points behind, at .359.

Willie Collects 4 Hits

Mays was 4-for-5 Thursday as the San Francisco Giants salvaged the finale of a three-game set with Milwaukee with a 5-4 victory in 12 innings. It brought them within .010 percentage points of the first-place Braves.

Musial was 0-for-4 against Pittsburgh, but the St. Louis Cardinals swept the three-game set with a 4-3 decision. They leap-frogged the Pirates for third place.

In the other NL games, Cincinnati smacked Los Angeles 8-4 and Philadelphia finally stopped the Chicago Cubs 7-6.

The Giants won on Jim Finigan's double and a single by rookie Orlando Cepeda (who was 4-for-6) off losing reliever Gene Conley, now 0-4. Mays had opened the 12th with his fourth single, but was nailed at the plate by Hank Aaron's peg as he tried to score on Finigan's hit to center.

Moulders, Eagles Record Victories

In a pair of Thursday night Pony-Grad League games, the Moulders hammered the Elks for a 16-3 victory and the Eagles edged the Moose, 4-3.

The Moulders, with Moody on the hill, literally breezed to the decision over the Elks. They landed on Elks pitcher Bailey in the first inning for nine runs. They added one more in the second, another in the fourth and five in the sixth. A total of 16 hits was stroked by Moulder stickmen.

Moody kept his adversaries in check until the fourth, when they got one run. They scored another in the fifth. Only three hits were managed off Moody.

Gilbert and Rouse doubled for the victors, Evans turned the trick for the Elks.

The Eagles found themselves behind the Moose 1-0 in the second inning, scored a run to tie things up, added two more in the fourth for a 3-1 lead, then had to tally again in the seventh to win after Moose chased single runs across the plate in both the fifth and sixth frames.

Eaglemen got four runs on five hits; Moose batters scored three times on the same number of safeties.

Eaglemen got four runs on five hits; Moose batters scored three times on the same number of safeties.

Flesher was the winning Eagle hurler and was credited with a pair of strikeouts. Saunders was tagged with the defeat.

President Warren Giles of the National League and Will Harbridge of the American League called the meeting. The heads of both circuits said they planned to work on a "joint regulation," effective immediately, directed against pitchers who deliberately "dust-off" batters.

Outlook Good For Weekend Fishing Trips

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Going fishing? Think you need some points, say, on crappie angling? Generally, things are going to be pretty good in the coming week-end for lake and stream fishing. That's the view of the fish management section of Ohio Division of Wildlife in its weekly report.

But as for crappie angling, why not listen to Bill Myer and Gordon Yoder, the two Loudonville fishermen who have caught 1,600 crappies in Pleasant Hill Lake since early April.

These two were asked a week ago what their secret was in hauling in the big catches.

Their reply: You have to know the lake you're fishing. They claim they have fished Pleasant Hill almost every day since April and they know where crappies swarm around submerged brushy areas.

"Sometimes we fish two feet deep, other times we have to fish 18 feet deep to catch crappies," Myer said. "But we always fish the choice brushy spots we have pinpointed in the lake."

Here in brief is what the division sees for weekend fishing:

NORTHWESTERN OHIO—Good fishing conditions exist throughout most of this area; good catches of various kinds of fish reported, weekend outlook good barring rains within next few days.

NORTHEASTERN—Clear and normal waters exist throughout most of this district and fishing reported good; such popular lakes as Guilford, Zepernick, Pender, Berlin, Clearfork and Charles Mill providing good catches.

EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTH-EASTERN—Wills Creek in Guernsey County somewhat muddy and high but most other streams and major lakes in this area in good fishing condition.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN—With exception of few streams in Marion and Morrow counties, virtually all other waters clear and normal with some fish of all species being taken; weekend fishing should be good.

SOUTHWESTERN—Reports from this part of Ohio indicate all waters clear and normal although a few streams are lower than usual for this time of year.

Fishing has been good in both lakes and streams and some good catches reported in Grant, Kiser, Stonelick, Cowan, Sinclair, Indian and Loramie.

That put Terry over the hump. He didn't allow another hit. The White Sox won as Sherm Lollar's first-inning homer off loser Bobby Shantz (4-2) and ninth-inning single off Sal Maglie drove in all their runs. Ray Moore (2-1) had a four-hit shut out for eight innings. Don Larsen (4-0) won his eighth in a row since last Aug. 5 and drove in four runs, but could not hold a 10-3 lead in the opener.

Ryne Duren, the Yankees' new-found Rookie of the Year candidate, made his ninth save with 2-3 innings of two-hit shutout relief. Early Wynn was the loser. Mickey Mantle hit his eighth homer, fourth in four days.

Trading Post in Action Saturday at Richwood

Mac's Trading Post of the Commercial Softball League will meet the rugged Falter Packers team of Columbus Saturday night in a twin bill at Richwood Park. The first game is scheduled to get under way at 6:30. The Marion nine will carry a 7-4 record into action against the Columbus crew. A team spokesman said Bill Trimmer, Bud England and Dean Schreider probably would handle the pitching for Mac's.

Larsen Evens Record

NEW YORK (AP)—It's been a long time coming, but Don Larsen, the only perfect game pitcher in World Series history, finally has reached .500 in the majors.

The big right-hander, who did the impossible with a 2-0 victory over Brooklyn in the 1956 series, squared his six-year major league record at 44-44 Thursday in a 12-5 first-game victory for the New York Yankees in a doubleheader split with the Chicago White Sox.

Meet Tonight on TV

Akins, Martinez Collide For Welterweight Title

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A new world welterweight boxing champion will be crowned tonight when Virgil Akins, a stiff-punching home town boy, meets clever Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., in the 15-round final match of an elimination tournament.

Carmen Basilio, who vacated the title last September when he entered the middleweight ranks, will watch the fight. He picks Martinez.

Akins is Favored

Akins, a 30-year-old slugger who has come into his own in recent months after years of erratic performances, is the 2-1 favorite on the home front.

It will be a healthy payday for both fighters. Each gets $15,000 from TV and an additional $15,000 guarantee or 30 per cent of receipts.

Akins and Martinez, 29, are the survivors of a six-man elimination tournament set up last year. Akins bypassed the tournament for a time and won the Massachusetts version of the world title by knocking out ex-champ Tony DeMarco. After repeating the job on DeMarco in a rematch, Virgil eliminated Isaac Logart by a sixth-round knockout in New York March 21. Martinez ousted Gil Turner in January and drew a bye into the finals with Akins.

Record More Impressive

Martinez's 60-5 record for 65 bouts is more impressive than Akins' 47-17-1, especially since Martinez never has been knocked out and Akins has been stopped twice. However, Akins scored two knockouts over DeMarco, who beat Martinez, and flattened Logart in his last three starts.

NBC will telecast and broadcast at 9 p. m., EST.

Empire, National City Bank, Baker Wood Nines Score Wins

In Federal League play on Scott Field Thursday night, Empire slipped past Baldauf, 10-9, and Baker Wood shaded the Whirlpool 5-4. National City Bank walked Isaly's 9-3.

Empire, with Berridge on the hill, downed Baldauf with 10 runs on eight hits. They scored once in the first inning, five times in the second, twice in the third and once in both the fifth and sixth frames.

Baldauf took an early lead on a two-run first inning, then managed but two more runs, both in the fourth. They collected six hits all told. Quilter was on the rubber to absorb the defeat.

Brownstein doubled for Empire in the first, with Pruett and Mohr turning the trick in the third. Baldauf's Shaw poled a home run in the first.

Baker Wood and Whirlpool got to the sixth inning of their game all tied up at 4-4. Baker's single run in that session gave them the victory, 5-4, on nine hits. Whirlpool got seven safeties.

Baker, with Howison on the mound, took a 2-0 lead in the first frame, stretched its advantage to 3-0 in the second. Whirlpool, Alexander pitching, got a pair of runs in the fourth and added two more in the fifth after Baker had added a single run to their score in the fourth. Then followed Baker's winning run in the sixth.

Dodds and Hochstetter doubled for Baker and Whirlpool respectively.

Howison helped his own cause by getting three hits in three trips for the victors. Wynn was three for three for the Whirlpool cause.

In American League action, National City Bank turned nine hits into nine runs to defeat Isaly's, 9-3. The milkmen got three runs on three hits. Both nines were guilty of four errors apiece.

Cudd went to the rubber for the Bankers, gave up three bases on balls, got a pair of strikeouts and was credited with the win. Stevenson hurled for Isaly's, walked a trio and fanned three Bank stickmen.

National City scored twice in the first inning, added four runs in the second, two in the fourth and one in the sixth to account for their score. Isaly's got single runs in the second, fourth and fifth.

Thomas and Cudd both doubled for National City Bank; Stevenson had a two-bagger for Isaly's and banged a home run. The Bank's Glenn poled a brace of round trippers.

Detroit Calling MPS Hurler Has 2-Hit Shutout Up Ossie Virgil In Industrial League Softball

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ossie Virgil, a 25-year-old native of the Dominican Republic, was expected to join the Detroit Tigers tonight, marking the first appearance of a Negro player on the club's roster.

With the promotion of Virgil from its Charleston, W. Va., club Thursday, Detroit became the 15th major league team to carry a Negro player since Jackie Robinson joined the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. Boston now is the only major league team without a Negro on its roster.

Tiger officials said Virgil's color had nothing to do with his promotion to the parent club.

The Tigers have been under some pressure from Negro groups in Detroit to add a Negro player. One such group recently announced and then called off a boycott of Briggs Stadium in Detroit.

Whirlpool, Huber - Warco and Marion Power Shovel recorded wins Friday night in Industrial League No. 1 play at Garfield Park.

Whirlpool pushed over a run in the bottom of the eighth inning to clip McMillen 5-4. Huber - Warco raced to a 9-1 win over the Marion Engineer Depot and the MPS nine defeated OSCO 11-0.

MPS had an easy time in its victory over OSCO. Moore went to distance on the mound and gave up only two base hits while his mates were hammering out a 10-hit attack. Irey hit a single in the third and Hopkins belted a triple in the fifth for the only OSCO hits.

The game was called after five innings by the 10-run lead rule. MPS pushed over five tallies in the opening inning. The runs came on five hits including a home run by Darnell and a sacrifice fly. Five more came home in the third on six hits, a hit batter and a walk. Bob Higgins belted a triple for the winners while Fritz Walters had a pair of doubles and Robertson also hit a double. Boles had two singles.

Whirlpool held a 4-1 lead after five innings but McMillen erupted for three in the sixth to tie the score. Both teams scored one in the first, McMillen's coming on two hits and a fielder's choice and Whirlpool's coming in on a hit, a fielder's choice and a base on balls. The winners added two in the second on a walk, a triple by Williams and a sacrifice fly. Hits by Millisor, Augenstein and Adganski accounted for another in fifth.

McMillen tied the score in the sixth with three runs on two hit batters, an error and a base hit. Whirlpool's winning marker came home on a hit batter, a walk and singles by Brady and Conroy. Millisor finished with three hits for the winners.

Sherm McKinniss blanked the MED nine until the sixth inning when he allowed the only run on a walk, a hit by Kline, his second of the game, and a sacrifice fly. Huber scored once in the third and fourth and shoved over six runs in the fifth.

Warren Smith of Hampton Bays, N.Y., is Columbia University's only letter winner among pitchers this spring. A senior, he is a southpaw.

Pitching—Ralph Terry, Athletics, threw a seven-hit, 13-inning shutout that beat the Senators 2-0 in a duel with Camilo Pascual broken up by Woody Held's two-run homer.

Hitting — Sherm Lollar, White Sox, drove in all of the Sox runs with a homer and single in 3-2 second game victory over Yankees, who took opener 12-5.

Methodist Conference Urging Forums on Ban of Union Shop

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP) — The state law but a matter to be settled by labor and management at the bargaining table. The resolution adopted urged 11 districts, which include some 300,000 members, to follow the pattern of the conference itself in discussing the issue.

After more than an hour's discussion Thursday, 1,400 delegates to the conference's annual session approved the forum idea. This followed rejection of a resolution from the National Council of Churches declaring that the union shop should not be a subject of finding forums, with representatives of both management and labor invited to express their views and provide Christians with intelligent interpretations."

Airman Accused Of Using Dog for Burglary Lookout

WESTHAMPTON BEACH, N.Y. (AP)—A young airman has been accused of using his German shepherd patrol dog as a lookout while he committed a series of burglaries and a holdup.

Charged Thursday with first-degree robbery was A.C. Richard Weinert, 25, attached to the Suffolk County Air Force Base here. Weinert was one of a dozen man-dog teams which patrol the base. About three weeks ago, he reported that he and his dog chased a safe cracker. Authorities became suspicious and began questioning Weinert.

They said he admitted burglarizing quarters at the base and holding up a gas station at nearby Calverton. Total loot was put at about $1,200.

Weinert assertedly taught his dog to maintain watch while he went to work.

Union To Weigh Firm's New Offer

A revised company offer aimed at settling the strike of some 200 Marion Metal Products Co. workers will be considered by the membership of Local 1281, International Association of Machinists at a meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday.

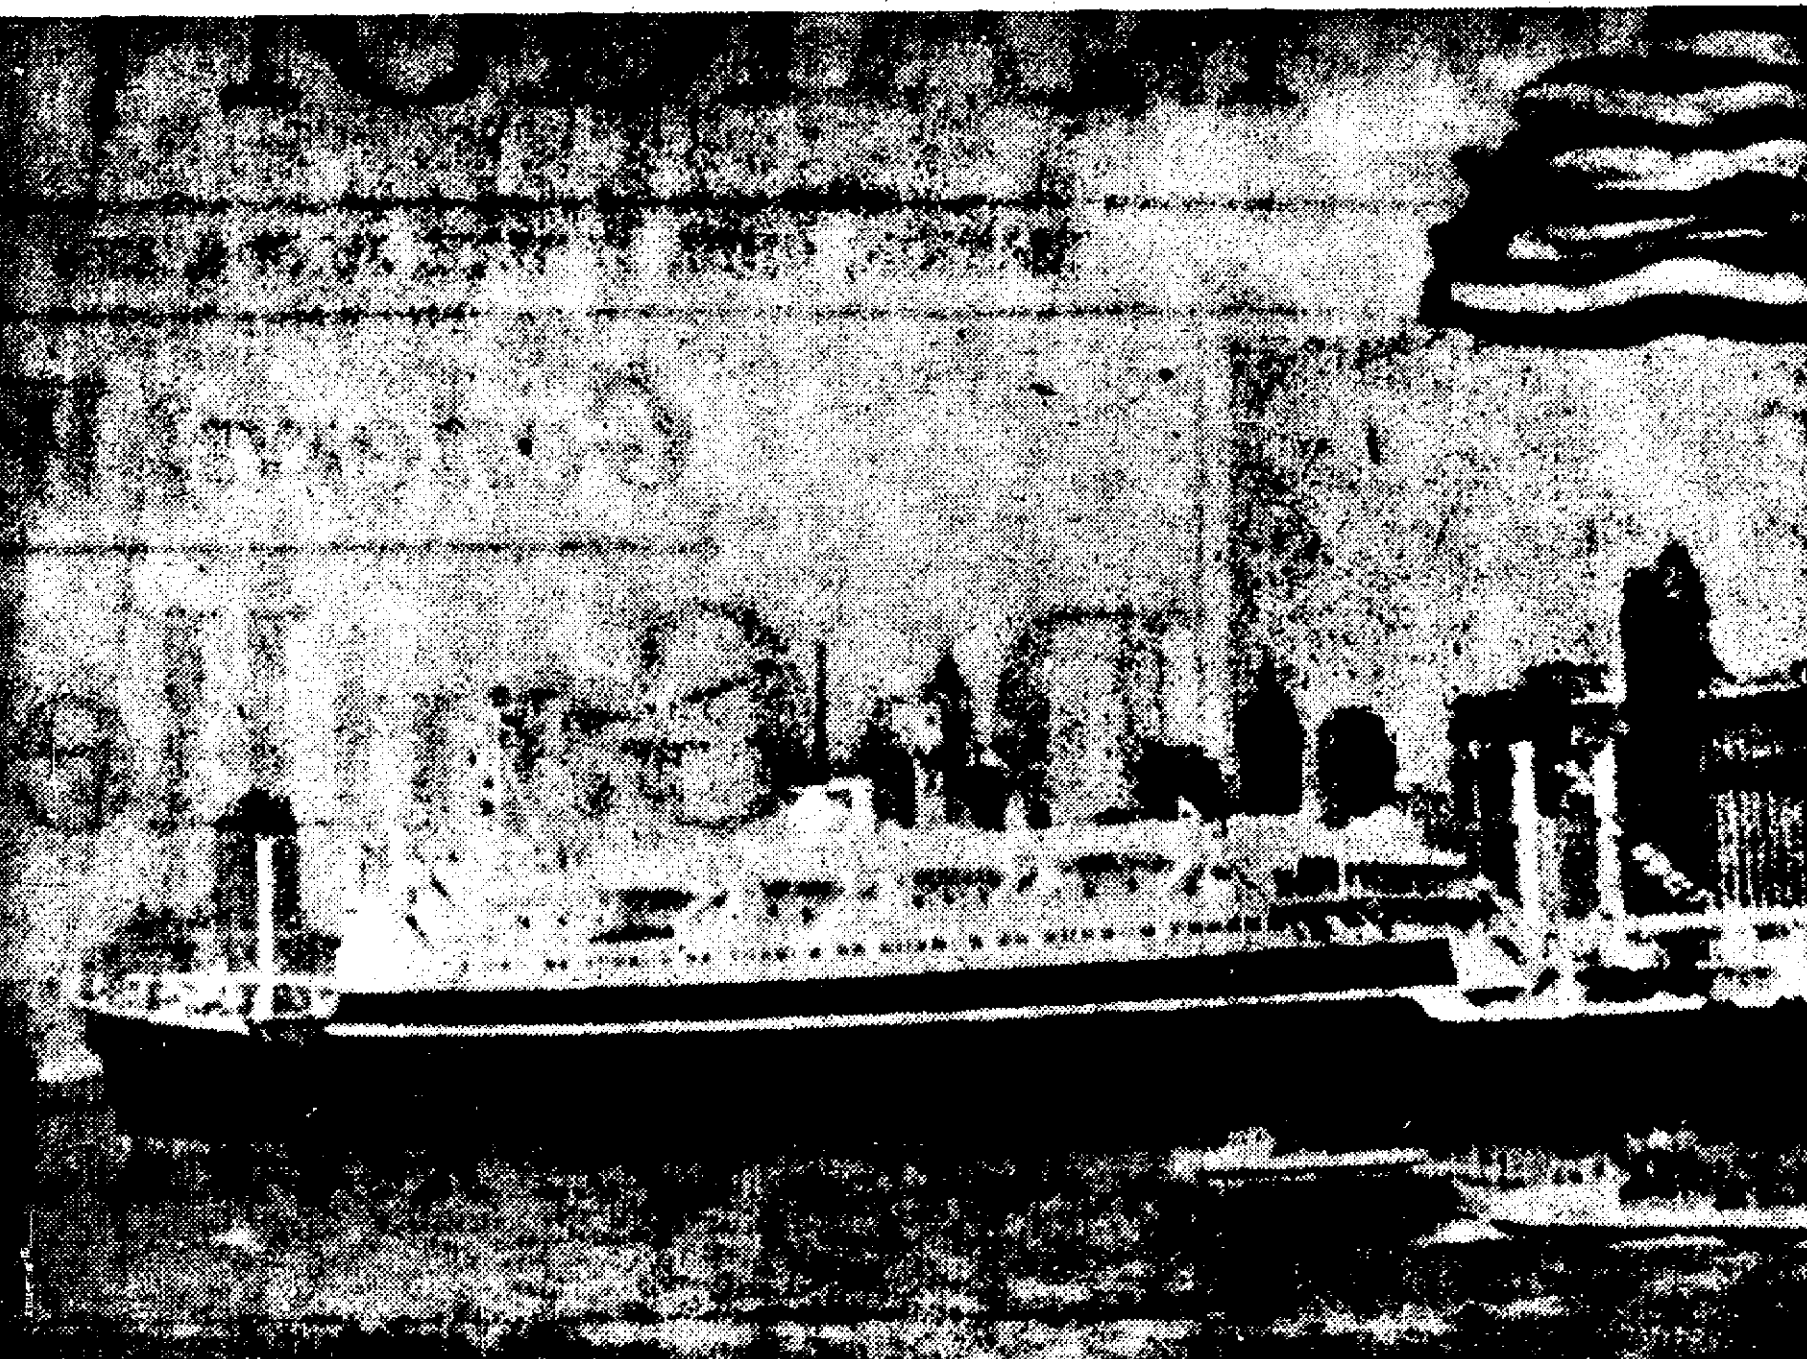

The company and union negotiating committees met at 10 a.m. Thursday with Irwin Gerard, federal conciliator, and the revised company offer was presented to the union committee at that time.

Company and union officials announced that details of the offer will not be divulged until after the union membership meeting.

The strike of the production workers at the plant started April 28 in a dispute over wages and fringe benefits and various other issues.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The 18,000-ton freighter Joseph Thompson was damaged slightly Thursday when it hit a breakwater in Lake Erie. The ship, owned by the Hansard Steamship Co., was sent to Lorain Shipyards for repairs to the bow.

Seventh-Day Adventist Pastor Takes New Post

A new assignment to serve Seventh-Day Adventist Churches in the newly formed Defiance District has been accepted by Elder S. R. LaRosa in a move from the Bucyrus District next week.

Since August, 1956, he has been associate pastor of churches in Bucyrus, Galion, Marion and Upper Sandusky under Elder W. E. Haase of Galion and he will give his last sermon at Bucyrus Saturday. Previous to coming to Ohio with Mrs. LaRosa and their three children he was a member of the "Faith for Today" television staff in New York City. His new district is composed of churches in Defiance, Bryan, Hicksville and Napoleon.

Coming to the churches as assistant pastor to replace him will be Elder Lyle Euler of Dayton, now the counselor at the denomination's youth camp at Tar Hollow near Chillicothe.

END OF AN ERA

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Another era rattled to a close here. The Transport Co. recently replaced the last of its electric street cars with trolley buses. The street cars began serving Milwaukee in 1890.
